Arming the Tartars

And Have Them Drilled According to Modern Methods.

Victory for British Forces on the East Bank of the Nile

Three Hundred Natives Killed and King Mwanga Made Prisoner-Reported Death of Capt. Marchand-The Colonies Loyal.

London, May 9. - Oriental advices state that the Empress Dowager of China has ordered the Tartar general of Kiang Ning to drill all Tartar troops in the Northern Chinese provinces, according to modern methods, the necessary arms to be furnshed by Viceroy Liu. Similar instructions have been sent to the Tartar generals at Kang Chow and Foo Chow. These generals have 50,000 Tartars under their command, intended for service along the Russian frontier, where disturbances have occurrred between the Russian Cossacks and Manchurian peasants.

The Pekin correspondent of the Times says: The negotiations for a loan of $2,000,000 for the Tien Tsin-Chin Kiang Railway, under Anglo-German control, have been successfully terminated. BRITISH VICTORY.

The foreign office has received news from Unyoro that Colonel Evatt attacked Chief Kabarega on the east bank of the Nile on April 9 and com-pletely defeated him. Three hundred of the enemy were killed, and Kabarega himself, who was wounded, and King Mwanga, were taken prisoners. Col. Evatt's losses were two killed and 20 wounded Uganda soldiers.

DEATH OF MAJOR MARCHAND. It is persistently rumored in Paris that Major Marchand, leader of the famous Marchand expedition, which was returning from Fasheda, on the Nile, to the Red Sea, en route for France, has been killed by a band of marauders near Ras Jiboutil, the French post on the coast, and that Captain Baratieri was wounded in the same encounter.

THE COLONIES ARE LOYAL. The Duke of Cambridge yesterday opened Imre Kiralfy's Greater Britain Exhibition at Earl's Court, in the presence of a distinguished company, which included representatives of several colonial govern-ments. In the course of his speech Duke of Cambridge emphasized fact that he and other members of the royal family desired to do everything to strengthen the ties between Great Britain and the colonies. His grace said that it was a singular fact that with all the talk of peace, all the nations were going ahead with armaments. If the czar's conference resulted in any steps tending to lessen the burden upon the people and to insure peace, the suggestions would be sincerely welcomed by England. the same time the Duke of Cambridge said he congratulated his audience upon the preparedness of the country, and the undoubted loyalty of the colonies. PEACE PRINCIPLES.

Berlin correspondent of the The London Standard says: The United States delegates to the peace conference at The Hague have instructions to advance three leading principls-the institution of courts of arbitration, the extension of the declaration of Paris of 1856, of the nonconfiscation of all cargoes, not contraband of war and the extension of the Geneva convention to war by sea. HARCOURT REPLIES TO ROSE-former leader of the Liberal party in the House of Commons, at the the house last Saturday evening, delivered "a resentful and outspoken reply to Lord Rosebery's references to the state of the Liberal party in his speech last week, at the banquet of the City Liberal Club at Walbrook, Harcourt, according to the London. Daily Mail, declared that the Liberals had no occasion to turn backward, and that it ill became one of Mr. Gladstone's colleagues to advocate wiping out the whole inheritance Liberalism had received from that illustrious statesman.

BERY. The Daily Mail announces that Sir William Vernon Harcourt, the dinner of the Welsh members

DELIVERANCE OF ORLEANS. Orleans, May 9.-The annual celebration of the deliverance of Orleans by Joan of Arc was held here yesterday with the customary ceremonies. salute of 21 guns was fired at sunrise and all the bells in the city were rung. At ten o' clock the municipal and other bodies went to the cathedral, which was decked with flowers and flags. The nave was festooned with drapery and flags. There was an enormous crush of people seeking admission. A cantata was rendered by 500 performers. Among those present was a descendant of Joan of Arc. Archbishop Ireland, the orator of the occasion, spoke in French. After a eulogy of Joan of Arc, Archbishop Ireland said that he was happy to seize the occasion to tell of unspeakable affection of France, which was the land of his youth and the school of his soul. After the ora-tion the cortege proceeded to the site of the old Fort Tournailles, which was captured by Joan of Arc on May 8, 1429. The route along which the pro-cession passed was lined with the troops. Afterwards the cortege returned to the cathedral, where a Te Deum was sung. At night there were fireworks and a torchlight procession. CHOATE TALKS.

London, May 9 .- United States ambassador Choate was the central figure at the annual meeting of the British and Foreign Sailors' Society at the Mansion House, and the assemblage was a brilliant one. The Duke of Fife, in introducing Mr. Choate, said:

Chinese Dowager Empress Will | presented Mrs. Choate with a beautiful book of the records of the society's work. Mr. Choate, on rising, was received with ringing cheers, and the audience rose to its feet en masse. Mr. Choate made a brilliant speech, warmly pressing the interests of the He made a happy hit by sailors. saying, with reference to the name of the society, that he was neither Brit-ish nor foreign, but simply an Am-erican. "But," added Mr. Choate, "every American is entitled to feel sympathy with such a society as this, in view of its historic interest, inasmuch as its founder. Admiral Gambier, signed the treaty of peace in 1814—a treaty which has never since been broken by the two nations, and, I trust, never will be." The sentence was greeted with prolonged cheers. Continuing, he said: "When we look across the page of history we see in Nelson the great typical sailor of all ages and all nations. But in the past year or two new heroes have come to stand by his side in our own Dewey and Sampson. (Renewed cheers greeted this sentence.) The letter from President McKinley expressed warm appreciation of the labors of the society, and said: 'This is a great year for the Anglo-Savon race and the for the Anglo-Saxon race, and the sallors of both nations are coming in for a full share of praise for their splendid achievements."

BOERS READY FOR WAR. A dispatch to the London Morning Post from Johannesburg says that the Boers throughout the Transvaal have been officially warned to hold themselves in readiness for serious eventualities. There has been unprecedented activity in the fort at Johannesburg for weeks past. Military patrols to the north of the town are occupied in range finding, and the families of some prominent residents are preparing to leave the country.

THIRTY DROWNED.

Adelaide, South Australia, May 9 .-The British ship Loch Sloy, Captain Nicol, from Clyde, on Jan. 5, for Adelaide and Melbourne, was wrecked on Kangaroo Island on April 24. Five passengers and 25 of the crew were drowned. Four of those on board the ship escaped from the wreck, but three of them are still wandering in the CABLE NOTES.

VOLUNTEERS COMING HOME

Will Leave the Philippines as Fast as Possible-Many Instances of Personal Bravery.

Washington, May 9 .- Adjt.-Gen. Corbin said yesterday that orders had been issued for the return of the volunteers in the Philippines, and that they would come home as fast as transportation could be provided and in the order of their departure for the islands.

BRAVE FELLOWS. Manila, April 2, via San Francisco, Cal., May 9.—Instances of personal bravery have been quite as numerous in the American army in the Philippines, as during the campaign in Cuba, but the correspondents have not had the same opportunity to chronicle these deeds of daring in the Orlent, because

On the first day of MacArthur's advance, Captain Clay received a bullet through the neck. He lay six hours in the jungle before he was discovered, and as the wound was a dangerous one at best, his life was despaired of. His only thought when he was brought into the hospital was that his family should be informed that he was but slightly injured. He is now, however, well on the road to

Hall conducted with such skill and success that it was worthy of more attention than overshadowing importance of Mac-Arthur's advance permitted, Gregg was near his chief. The horse he rode had just been shot under him. He was taking off the saddle when a man warned him that the shot had been fired by a sharpshooter in a tree near Refusing to take cover, as most of the men were doing, the lieutenant stepped forward, and standing erect, uncased his field glasses to look at the tree. Just as he raised them to his eyes, a puff of smoke was seen in the tree. Gregg put his hand to his breast and fell forward, killed instantly.

RAILROAD COMBINATION

Including Lines Between Boston and Chicago-Details of the Big Deal.

Cleveland, May 9.-The Leader says: According to a high official of the Vanderbilt lines in this city, the details of a big railroad trust, which is to include all the lines between Boston and Chicago, are now being worked out and consolidation may be completed within the next few weeks. cent purchase of short lines in New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois was in line with the plans for the consolidation which has been in contemplation. It is not the purpose to have all the lines under one management exactly, but to apportion them among the Pennsylvania Company, the Vanderbilt interests, the Baltimore and Ohio Company when it shall have been recognized, giving to each system the lines that it can use to the best ad-

The first inkling of the scope of the plan came when the Vanderbilts annow iced the other day that they con-troled all the roads in New England, with the exception of the Boston and Albany, with which they now have a traffic agreement and which they expect to take in soon. The Vanderbilts now control all the trunk lines between Buffalo and New York, with the exception of the Erie, the Lackawanna and the Lehigh Valley. The Erie, it of the Vanderbilts through the influence of the Morgans, while the Lehigh Valley may go to the Baltimore and Ohio. The Lackawanna is now operated in connection with the Nickel Plate, a Vanderbilt line. West of Plate, a Vanderbilt line. West of Buffalo the Vanderbilts have the Lake Shore, the Nickel Plate, the Pittsburg and Lake Erie, the Big Four, the Michigan Central, which, with the Flint and Pere Marquette, that is soon to be absorbed, will give a line to Michigan. The Big Four west is to be operated in connection with the Monon, recently purchased by the Morgans, and the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton is expected to be absorbed soon, The Lake Erie and Western, acquired by the Morgans, is expected to give the Vanderbilts a line from Sandusky to Peoria, Ill. These roads, with the Hocking Valley, the Ohio Central, the Columbus, Sandusky and Hocking, and the Detroit and Lima Northern will about complete the Vanderbilt sys-The Pennsylvania, which has an immense system already under its control, is expected to acquire the Cle land, Akron and Columbus, with which it has a traffic arrangement at present; the Wheeling and Lake Erie, the Cleveland, Canton and Southern and the Ohio Southern, as well as some minor lines. The Baltimore and Ohio is alloted the Lehigh Valley (possibly), the Cherry Creek road, which, with the Philadelphia and Reading, would form a through line from Pittsburg to New Years the Political Property of York; the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern, giving a line to Cincinnati and St. Louis; the Pittsburg and Western, the Cleveland Terminal and Valley and the Northern Ohio, opening short lines through from Pittsburg to Cleveland and Chicago, as well as the Cleveland, Lorain and Wheeling.

These are the outlines only of the plan which is now being worked out, but those who have been watching the changes in the railroad world do not doubt that it will be carried through successfully. The purpose of the consolidation is said to be to prevent rate cutting and to accomplish practically what the Joint Traffic Association was organized to do. The 1,200 Italian laborers on the Jerome Park reservoir work at New York, who went on strike on Monday, are still out.
