ATTEMPT TO BURN SCHOOL. Coal Oil Used to Start Blaze in City of Belleville.

BELLEVILLE, May 25.-What looked like a deliberate attempt at incendiarism was discovered about 6.30 this evening, when smoke was seen coming from the separate school in West Bellewille. The fire was soon extinguished. Evidence was found that someone had poured coal oil on the door behind two doors. Behind one of the doors the charred remains of a rag soaked with coal oil was found. In the centre of the west schoolroom a hole had been The school authorities will demand

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 25.-The Jewish Publication Society of America at its 20th annual meeting made the announcement that arrangements have been made for the translation of the Bible. This is regarded as one of the most important works ever undertaken by the society.

The translation will be made with the co-operation of the Central Conference of Jewish Rabbis, and the book will be adopted as the official version of that body. A Bible fund of $50,000 will be raised for the purpose.
