REVOKE THE PRIVILEGES. Judge Hodgins Claims Law Warrant Such Action. LONDON, Sept. 29.—(C.A.P. Cable).—An article on the "Revocation of Treaty Privileges to alien subjects," by Judge Hodgins of Toronto, appears in the October number of The Nineteenth Century, in which Judge Hodgins quotes a number of precedents from the United States supreme court and international law writers, which Hodgins claims would warrant the British Government in denouncing and revoking the grant of most favored nation privileges to alien subjects of the crown, in part of their food supply, and as valuable to them as one of their commercial assets for colonial revenue and trade purposes.

CANADIAN PREFERENCE. Lord Milner, in Magazine Article, Admits Its Value. LONDON, Sept. 29.—(C.A.P. Cable).—Lord Milner, who is now in Canada, in an article in The Nineteenth Century on the value of the Canadian preference, says that "when British goods are competing with foreign products, the advantage is very great, and the distance or other natural cause of a preponderating character, or even the settled habits or customs of the importing country, no preference that is either expert or desire to see imposed which wholly counteracted the work of imitation, but it can and does exert a great influence on the course of trade that it is well worth making some effort and even some sacrifice in order to maintain and extend it." Lord Milner thinks the time has come when all fair-minded free importers should be asked to demand a more liberal policy, including the present chancery of the exchequer, he adds, have admitted it already.

DR. GANDIER WILL CONSULT HIS CHURCH

Pastor of St. James Square Presbyterian Church and Knox College.

This morning a committee representing the board of management and senate of Knox College will tender the principalship to Rev. Dr. Alfred Gandier, pastor of St. James Square Presbyterian Church, St. Mortimer Clark is chairman of the committee which will call upon Dr. Gandier.

REV. DR. GANDIER. The World last night respecting the matter. Dr. Gandier appreciated the high importance of the position to which he is to be invited to accept, but before I am in a position to give any definite reply I shall have to consult with the church authorities of my congregation. It will be a little while before I am sure of my own mind in the matter.

REV. DR. WALLACE GOES. Will Leave New Lowell Pastorate for Church in Baltimore. BALTIMORE, Md., Sept. 29.—Rev. Dr. O. C. Wallace, formerly chancellor of McMaster University, Toronto, has accepted the call to the pastorate of First Baptist Church of this city. At the morning service Sunday the pulp committee read a letter from Dr. Wallace, in which he said: "After thorough consideration of the problem to which I was brought, I have reached the clear conviction that in this matter the voice of the people is the voice of God. When my resignation of the Lowell pastorate has been accepted I will send my formal acceptance of your call. I hope to begin my ministry in Baltimore on the first of November. The possibilities of your field have fired my imagination and you have won my heart."

OLDEST MASON, A CANADIAN. BELLINGHAM, Wash., Sept. 29.—Possibly the oldest member of any city in the United States died yesterday at Lynden. He was the Rev. Alexander Leclair, 96 years old, who had been for 75 years a member in good standing of the Masonic Fraternity. For 40 years he was a frontier preacher, leaving the Catholic church at the age of 21 to join the Methodists. He was born in Canada of Scotch and French parentage.

SHOCK KILLS BANKER. PITTSBURGH, Sept. 29.—Unable to withstand the news that his bank, the Cosmopolitan National Bank, had closed, President John McCullough of that institution, who had been ill for several days, died at his home last Saturday afternoon and was buried Saturday afternoon, from which he died last afternoon.

OVERLOADS STOMACH, DIES. WHITBY, Sept. 29.—Lorne Campbell, commonly called "Silver," a Grand Trunk freight handler, was found dead in a room at the Whitby House at 11 o'clock last night. He had been overworked and had eaten a large quantity of food as the cause of death an overloaded stomach. He had been intoxicated.
