On Overcoats of Tweed, Chinchilla and Other Warm Coatings, in Box Back, Form Fitting, Pinch Back and Chesterfield Styles, at . . .

$18.75

On Suits of Worsted in Shades of Green, Brown and Grey, in Checks and Stripes, in 3-Button Sac Style with Soft Rolling Lapels, at . . .

$16.75

Many of these are sample coats made in our own workrooms. Some are odd coats from higher priced lines that have been reduced for clearance. All show that great care has been taken in tailoring them, every seam, pocket and buttonhole is strongly sewn. The tweeds and chinchillas and warm coatings in them are stout cloths that should be capable of giving the very best of wear. Some are lined throughout, others are partially lined. You'll find them in the swagger single and double-breasted, box back; the neat form fitting and pinch back; and the conservative Chesterfield style. Many have patch pockets, others have flap pockets. Sizes in the lot, 35 to 44. Today, Special . . . $18.75

These Worsted Suits are also tailored with a neatness that is quite apparent at first sight. Now, worsted is a particularly good service-giving material, that holds its shape, and color. These are in single-breasted 3-button sac style, in green, brown, and grey. In small checks and fancy woven stripes. Sizes are somewhat broken in range but there are sizes 36 to 44 in the lot. Special . . . $16.75
