The first duty of counsel, if one is appointed, should be to demand the production and publication of the "special instructions" which it was reported Attorney General Raney had asked Mr. Justice Sutherland not to read at the opening sitting of the new royal commission. What is there in that document that the honorable Mr. Raney was so prompt in asking "that it be not read"? If you ask my opinion just let me say that was a piece of down right impertinence. Surely, if Mr. Justice Sutherland is a man capable of sitting upon the supreme court beach of this province (and we all believe he is), it should not have been necessary for the attorney-general or any person else to hand him "special instructions," much less prevent the gentleman reating them if he saw fit to do so.

Brigadier-General C. H. T. Lucas.

A still worse calamity, from the given by the carriers.

The 20 per cent, increase in passenger fares, excess baggage charges and milk transportation rates and the boundary of the usual exhibition.

It has already been learned that Viscount French, loyal lieutenant of Ireland, will be general the United States over.

Freight rate increases will vary according to territory with forty per cent, in the east, 25 per cent. In the west—that is from the Mississpip River to the is from the Mississippi River to the Rocky Mountains—and 25 per cent. Mountain-Pacific territory of the Rockies to the Pacific coast, no including Alaska

Increases Justified The commission in its thirty-sixpage decision made no attempt to compute the amount of increased rereason of the rate advances. It did say, however, that the increases were justified in view of the rapidly chang ing conditions as to prices and the necessity for providing adequate transportation facilities during and after the period of readjustment. From figures submitted to the com mission by the carriers when their applications for the increases were made it was unofficially estimated that the apportionment of the advances would work out at about $1,-285,300,000 on freight, $233.800,000 on passenger, $48,600,000 on Pullman, $4,-500,000 on milk and $1.400,000 excess baggage charges. The increased charges on freight alone were estimated as equaling a levy of $12 per capita per annum for every man, woman and child in the United States.

The increases in passenger, Pullman and excess baggage rates were exactly those asked by the roads. Freight increases requested were 39.75 for the eastern roads. 32.3 for the western roads and 38.91 for the southern roads. the total estimated to yield $1,356,-000,000. The eastern roads thus were granted .25 of one per cent more than they sought; the western roads approximately what they sought, but the southern roads received approximately 14 per cent, less than they had
