

And now, commending their labours and those of the Society, to the favor and blessing of the Lord Jesus, and of his Spirit, your Committee take leave of the Society, in the earnest hope, that another anniversary may give renewed and increased occasion of adoring the good Providence of God which has thus far guided and prospered their endeavors.