WAS THE AMHERST ROAD TRACK SHORT? Did Cameron, Corkery and Horsman make the fast time credited to them at last night's race at Amherst? It was said here this morning on what should be good authority, that the track is short and would be more like thirteen laps to the mile than twelve. In any event the statement is made that it easily will make a difference of one minute and a half.

It was pointed out that Cameron's best time at the Halifax Mail road race last year for ten miles was more than 26 minutes, and about the same at the road race here last fall. Corkery's best time in the Hamilton road race last year was said to be 25:20 and Horsman's best time for the first ten miles of the fifteen mile race at the recent Y. M. C. A. sports here was 28 minutes. It is not considered possible that Cameron could make better time indoors than on a good road or outdoor track.

It has been suggested to settle the matter, that a steel tape be put on the track by the Amherst people. As the result of last night's race and Horsman's showing, Stirling's friends here feel more confident than ever that he should be able to give both Cameron and Corkery the race of their lives with the best possible chance of winning from them.

BASS IN HARBOR; A WARNING ISSUED. Quite a few sea bass are running in the harbor. They are coming in to spawn. The close season for these fish is from April 1 to November 1, when the fish are catching them or for anyone having them in possession, is a fine of $100. Fishermen and dealers are warned not to destroy or buy these fish. Overseer J. F. Belyea, in discharging his duties, has seen to the liberation of quite a few already.

The fish are now becoming more plentiful under protection.

COUPLE FROM ST. JOHN IN A DIVORCE CASE

W. E. Dykeman's Daughter Declares She Turned Detective and Secured Evidence to Warrant Action By Her Mother

Boston, May 3.—(Special)—In the East Cambridge court this morning W. E. Dykeman, of St. John, until recently in the lumber business, was declared by his own daughter to have left his home for an affinity who is barely out of her teens. The girl said she turned detective and investigated her father's statements when he said he was going out of town on business, with the ascertained result that she discovered facts to warrant a divorce action for her mother, Mrs. M. Dykeman.

Mrs. Dykeman testified that she was married in St. John in 1883 and that her married life was happy until last July when she became satisfied there were adequate grounds for her present action.

A number of families of the name are listed in St. John directory, but there is no W. E. in the number.

WIFE BEATING AND BAD LANGUAGE

Charges Against James Thompson of Cranston Avenue—Police Court Matters

James Thompson was arrested this morning a little after nine o'clock by Sergeant Kilpatrick and Policeman Belyea on a charge of beating and assaulting his wife, using abusive and insulting language to her and also using threatening and abusive language to Mrs. Watters, a neighbor. He had been drinking this morning.

Last night he went to his home in Cranston avenue and, it is said, made things unpleasant for his family by threatening to break in the door and to burn the house down at the same time using abusive and revolting language. His wife was to have come to court this morning to lay information against him, but because of his condition his case could not well be dealt with. It will probably be taken up tomorrow morning.

Five men charged with drunkenness faced Judge Ritchie this morning in the police court. Three of them, Daniel Finch, Edward O'Brien and David Hennessey were fined $8 each, George Goss $4 and Cook is out of Dorchester on ticket-of-leave, and pending an investigation, he was remanded.

William Shelley was also remanded on a charge of assaulting and beating an Indian named James Christmas in the Salvation Army shelter last night. Shelley was arrested by Policemen Neaton and Gosline after he had severely beaten Christmas. The latter had been a friend in need to him on Saturday had paid for his bed. Shelley has been in court several times, charged with assault.

Nichols was also of the look-up about noon by Policeman Nelson, but as he was resisting quite stubbornly, Lucas, who was passing, attempted to give his brother officer aid. This was resisted by McNerney, who, it is said, struck or kicked Lucas, with the result that he is now in jail along with Nichols.

FIGHT WITH THE POLICE

Lively Scrap in Union Street—Nelson Nichols and Albert McNerney Prisoners

As the result of a fist fight in Union street, which Nelson Nichols, an old offender in police circles, put up this morning, when arrested for drunkenness, he will have to answer to a charge of resisting the police as well as drunkenness, and another man, Albert McNerney, who, it is said, turned to help him, will have to answer to a charge of interfering with the police, and also of assaulting Policeman Lucas.

JUDGE RITCHIE SPEAKS ON CRITICISM OF HIM

"If the person who rushed into print with regard to some alleged statements I was reported to have made, had asked me by telephone or otherwise, what had transpired in court, he would not, if he had any idea of fair play or sense of justice, have written what appeared over his signature in this morning's Standard."

This was what Judge Ritchie said this morning with reference to a letter which appeared in the Standard. He continued: "I am not responsible for what persons may say I state, I am responsible for what I state. I did not say that it was a common occurrence for Englishmen in Canada to rob their employers, such a statement would not have been true. I did say to the boy before me for that of $21 from his fellow employee in the hotel after being there only a few hours, that he should have conducted himself so as to earn the respect of his employer and of the citizens in his new home."

"And I remarked that sometimes people formed rash judgments because of the conduct of newcomers in Canada, and by way of illustration I referred to a newspaper published in a part of the English Empire reflecting on English people generally. It read that 'No English need apply,' and I stated that I was surprised that such an advertisement would appear in a Canadian newspaper, and that expressed my disapproval of such reflections by a gentleman friend at the Montreal Club."

"I do hope that thoughtful people will not hold me responsible for reports of proceedings in court, which reports I have no opportunity of seeing until they appear in print."

Suits For Youths and Suits For Men

are different, and the difference is the more important when it is considered that there are several sizes that apply to both. The standard size in Youths' Suits are from 31 to 36 inches, in Men's from 32 to 46 inches—meaning for overlapping numbers. Youths are often seen innocently wearing suits that were made for small Men, and their friends wonder what makes them look so odd. There is a distinct section for Youths' Clothing in the Oak Hall store. It is the section that clothes the Boy with his first long trousers and takes care of his good appearance until he is of voting age. This season's styles for Youths are refreshingly boyant.

Suits, $5.00 to $20.00

Boys' Clothing That Boys Like It's a good indication for a Boy to know good clothes from mediocre sorts—shows he has been accustomed to being well dressed. Boys who habitually wear Oak Hall Clothing are apt to be hard to please elsewhere. And the reason isn't difficult to guess!

- Russian Suits, $3.50 to $6.50. Sailor Suits, $1.25 to $3.25. Bloomer Sailor Suits, $3.50 to $7.00. Revere Norfolk Suits, $5.00 to $8.50. Norfolk Suits, $2.25 to $3.00. Double Breasted Suits, with extra trousers, $5.00 to $12.00. Boys' Sack Suits, $3.50 to $9.00.
