ENGLAND BARS DIVORCE DETAILS London, Aug. 2.—(A. P. by Mail)—British newspapers soon will cease to carry detailed reports of evidence given in divorce cases. The House of Commons Committee, which has been considering this question some time, recommends that newspapers be permitted to publish only the statement of the petitioner, the defence, the judge's summing up, any points of law which may arise during trial and the jury's findings and judgment. The names of witnesses may be given, but not their evidence. The committee also recommends that the scope of a bill carrying these suggestions should be widened to include the prohibition of reports of matter that is indecent in all proceedings before a judicial bench.
