BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW

General Secretary for Canada is in St. John.

Walter Burd, of Toronto,
Speaks of Plan and Aims of This Organization of Men in Church of England.

Walter Burd of Toronto, general secretary of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew in Canada, is in the city on business connected with that society. In the course of an interview Mr. Burd explained the objects and organization of the society. It is the men's organization of the Church of England, and its one purpose is the training of men and boys to service. It is essentially not a social organization but a working body. In the Senior Brotherhood, which includes men from eighteen up, the foundation of all work is prayer, and the ultimate aim is to win the man or boy for Christ. Each member of the chapter aims to bring one man or boy to the confirmation classes and corporate communion.

Each chapter assists in securing candidates for the ministry and in organizing men's Bible classes and Sunday schools. They also assist the church wardens in welcoming strangers at the church door and assist the pastor in visiting. Hospital, prison and hotel work is also accomplished by this chapter. Open-air church services are often held to reach those who will not attend church indoors. Club rooms are established by the chapter to keep the young men of the parish off the streets at night.

The Juniors.
The junior department of the brotherhood is based upon the conviction that the future of the boy lies to a great extent in his training, and the boy in the 'teen' age is full of desire to work. To keep him attached to the church by doing something for him is a mistake. The better way is to give him a worthwhile task which will appeal to his imagination. As soon as a boy learns a religious truth, he should put it into practice in his everyday life, or it will mean little to him. When boys become members of a Junior chapter they are given a task within their powers; then, as their confidence increases, greater responsibility is given to them, so that they gradually trained as Christian workers, and may supply the ranks of the senior department, Sunday school teachers, boys' leaders, candidates for the ministry, etc.

By this means, not only are the boys trained to be workers, and so their allegiance to the church is secured, but they become a power and influence in the life of every boy with whom they come in contact. The results of a Junior chapter to a parish are therefore twofold: It means the bringing in by the chapter of many boys who are at present out of touch with the Sunday school and church, and the developing of trained workers among the chapter members themselves.

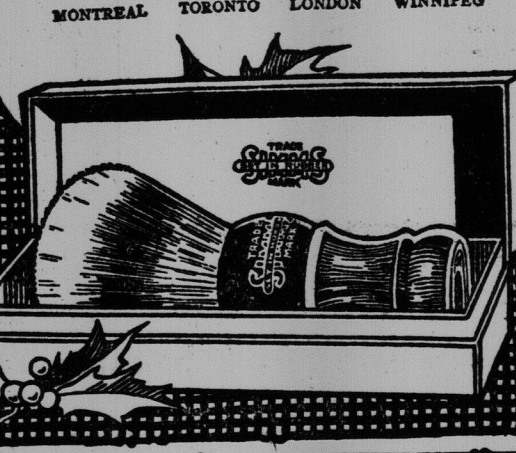

In Toronto, said Mr. Burd, the great

OPERATION ADVISED

Ruling Against Woman Whose Children Were Underfed.

Denver, Col. Nov. 30.—Sitting in the Juvenile Court here, Judge Graham of Georgetown, recommended for Mrs. Clyde Cassidente of Denver, an operation that would make it impossible for her to bear any more children. Mrs. Cassidente, who already is the mother of five, was haled before the judge on complaint of Denver social workers to show cause why her children should be taken from her, the complainant alleging that the children had been neglected and were undernourished.

Dr. Ray Sunderland, testifying in the case, said he believed conditions at the Cassidente home were the result of the mother bearing children too fast.

"What would you suggest as a remedy?" asked Judge Graham.

"That Mrs. Cassidente submit to a sterilizing operation," replied Dr. Sunderland.

"I will continue this case until January 10," the judge announced, "and in the meantime I want the doctor's suggestion carried out."

Dr. Sunderland said that the husband of Mrs. Cassidente, who is a notary

RECENT DEATHS

The death of William J. Condon occurred in the city yesterday. He was unmarried and leaves no near relatives. He was the son of the late Peter and Margaret Condon. The funeral will be held from Fitzpatrick's undertaking rooms on Thursday at 8.45 a. m. to the Cathedral for requiem high mass.

Sussex, Nov. 29.—(Special)—Mrs. MacBeth, wife of A. MacBeth, the well-known commercial traveler, died very suddenly this afternoon at 4.45 o'clock at her home. Mrs. MacBeth was stricken with paralysis last evening at 8.30 and remained unconscious until her death. She had been a resident of Sussex for two years, coming here from St. John. She is survived by her husband and two sons, Leslie, of Leithbridge, (Alta) and Fred, of Geneva (N. Y.). The funeral will take place on Thursday at three o'clock p. m. Interment will be in the town cemetery, Rev. A. V. Morais officiating.

SHE STILL TAKES IN WASHING.
Colored Woman's Millions Fail to Change Her Mode of Life.

Thrifty citizens still remain, in spite of the despair expressed by reformers at the extravagance and waste of the people throughout this land. A. C. Cooper of Shreveport, La., who was at the Hotel McAlpin, New York, the other day told of a colored woman down in his town who continues to take in washing although she is worth about $300,000.

"A piece of land bought by this colored woman against the day when she could put aside her tub and rest awhile was discovered to contain enormous oil deposits," said Mr. Cooper. "Today the woman is in the millionaire class, with a corps of lawyers to protect her interests. But she has not given up her occupation or changed her mode of living. Her happiness is in her work. The fortune, in fact, is said to have brought her only the fear of bodily harm, of being poisoned or otherwise disposed of for her money."
