Bargain Basement Idea Very Successful in Both Canada and the U. S.

A review of the mercantile situation continues to show slow but steady improvement. Retail sales, which are a very good index of the business situation in the big trade centres, are showing a healthy growth. Steady trade improvement is what is needed to bring prosperity. In the retail business the bargain basement method of merchandising has shown a very remarkable growth, both in Canada and the United States. Quality goods at low prices is the idea upon which bargain basements are operated. 8-4

ENGLISH SCHOOL BOYS CAMP WITH FACTORY LADS

Duke of York Continues His Experiment of Comradeship of Classes.

London, Aug. 3.—While the king and queen are at the Cowes regatta and the Prince of Wales is enjoying a few days at polo in strict privacy in the country, the Duke of York is repeating a striking experiment which he initiated last year.

At the invitation of His Royal Highness, several hundred boys from some of the famous English public schools are encamped at Romney with a like number of lads drawn from the factory towns all over the country.

The underlying idea is that a week's comradeship under canvas between lads of widely differing social station may go a long way towards promoting or rather improving the sense of common fellowship among the rising generation.

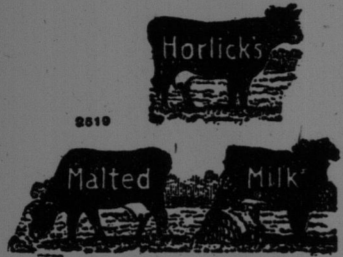

The duke is not actually staying in the camp, but he welcomed the campers on their arrivals and promised to make them further visits.

Drive In and Drain Out Dead Oil!

When your speedometer says you've covered 500 or more miles, go to your garage and ask them to drain out your crankcase.

For after such a distance oil uses its lubricating value—and without a good lubricant your car burns up.

Your garage man will be glad to clean your crankcase, only charging you for the Sunoco you need. It increases engine power!

Italians in Cemetery, Where $6,000 Had Been Ordered Hidden.

New Brunswick, N. J., Aug. 3.—Three Italians were surprised and arrested Sunday night as they apparently were searching in the Italian Cemetery between Ford's Corner and Perth Amboy, where Dominick Cerrote of Perth Amboy had been ordered to leave $6,000 under threat of death. They were charged by the Woodbridge police with sending Blackhand letters. They gave their names as Marco Nassaro of Woodbridge

Amboy and Port Reading have received Blackhand letters within the past few days, the police said. In each case the receivers were directed to deposit large sums in remote places and death was promised those failing to meet the demands.

Acting on a tip, several Woodbridge policemen hid in the Italian cemetery Saturday night and were rewarded by the appearance of four men who began peering about among the tombstones. One of them eluded capture. Those under arrest deny they had anything to do with the threatening letters.

TO REPEL RUM RUNNERS. Reformer Wants U. S. Army on Canadian Border.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 3.—Now that the United States army is all dressed up for duty and apparently is not going any place because of the rapidly clearing industrial situation, Dr. Wilbur F. Crafts, reformer, demands that it be sent to the Canadian border to repel invaders—rum runners.
