If the challenge is accepted it is proposed to have the boat designed by a Britisher, built in Canada and manned by Nova Scotia fishermen. Commodore Aemilius Jarvis, of Toronto, who was in conference today with Mr. Ross, has intimated his willingness to be the skipper for the next race.

The estimated cast for the new challenger, which will be christened The Maple Leaf will be more than $1,000,000

The New York World says Comm The New York World says Commodore Morgan is expected to take the matter up today with the America's Cup committee of the New York Yacht Club. A mere acknowledgment of the message will probably be sent. The committee then will await challenge in writing, which is required under the deed of gift of the cup.
