PRIZE PONY ARRIVED TODAY The thoroughbred registered Shetland pony mare, to be awarded the winner of the Oak Hall-Nickel voting contest, which closes Friday of this week, ar-rived by American Express from Green-field, Ohio, today, and is boarding at Brickley's stables, Union street. The pretty little animal came into Canada via Windsor, Ont., and lived in a large specially constructed crate en route. If was in fine fettle upon arriving and frisked about in the stable to the de-light of a large congregation of children and passersby. The pony, carriage and whole outfit complete will be seen on the streets commencing tomorrow forenoon. It is worth over $400 landed here, and the fortunate winner has the option of $300 in cash. There is great activity at the Nickel and Oak Hall in counting the votes, three electric Burroughs Add-ing Machines being employed day and night: MEN

It is difficult to say what pleased the ickel's patrons most in the "Banks O' Killarney" musical sketch as put on by the very clever Emmets yesterday-the orgeous special scenery, sweet singing numbers or the truly original comedy of the little red bantam and fox terrier. It was a surprising act throughout, It was a surprising act throughout, the people were not expected so many fresh features, it seemed, and the most generous of applause was accorded the new-comers. The stage was set deep with Irish scenery, especially painted for the Emmets, and the live stock flying and cavorting about as the prettily cos-tumed performers sang their songs and chatted to keep up the liveliest interest. For children and grown-ups alike the "Banks O' Killarney" novelty is far above the average. It is to be put on at 3.30, 8 and 9.15 every day this week. In pictures the Nickel will tonight conclude the great detective story "The Accusing Hand." It is a Lubin feature, which stands for excellence and is work-ed out in a manner quite new to the motion-picture story. There is a bright Vitagraph comedy as well and Miss Adele Harney, whose return for a brief stay was heartily welcomed. Miss Har-ney is singing Frederic Weatherly's pret-ty song "Your Voice."
