The last vessel from the Miranichi for Great Britain cleared at the Chatham Custom House on Saturday and went over the bar on Mondey 30th Novem- ber, carrying our last deal eargo for the present year. Although much has been said aboat the contraction of our lum- ber operations during the past season, the fact remains that the shipment have been thirty-six per cent in decaso §those of last year, and while here seems to be considerable talk about fewer men and teams going into the woods for the pre- sent winter, late quotations show an im- provement in the price of our wood staples in Great Britain. The British wood machet, however, generally as- sumes a brightened complexion about, the time the ice closes our ports, when holders of heavy stocks know that the supply will be reserieted for a few menths.
