AFRICA. -Mr. Cecil Ashley, son of the Earl of Shaftesbury, in a report of his travels in South Africa, forwarded to Sir Bartle Frere, says the aborigines instead of dying out, are every year in-creasing at a far higher rate than those of European extraction, and will ultimately fill the land and become formidable, if not to British Supremacy, at least, to the plans of British colonization. The object of the present war, therefore, is not the extermination of the natives, but the breaking up of their tribal relations, and their being brought into direct subjection to British magistrates. Socialism in Canada.

Our friends, the Protectionists, will, no doubt, be dreadfully shocked and indignant at being classified by the Saturday Review among the Socialists. In endea-voring to give the definition of Socialism COMMISSION MERCHANT. that excellent periodical, which some one lately cited as an authority on Protection, says :-- " What again, is Protection but TEAS, SUGARS MOLASSES, &C. a form of mistaken kindness? The consumer, who is not seen, is sacrificed to the producer who is seen. The journal UPPER WATER STREET, that advocates the re-imposition of the 'duties on iron in Germany might be described, without much straining of criticism, as a socialist publication While duties are imposed for the sake of revenue only, they are merely General Agent 'the means of preserving the order which 'is necessary that the exertions of individuals may bring forth their fruits. 'But directly they are imposed in order AND COMMISSION MERCHANT, that certain industries may flourishthat is, that one portion of society may 'thrive at the expense of another portion of that society, so that the many con W. & R. Brodie. 'sumers may from kindness bear the burdens of the few producers—socialism is introduced." There is no doubt a strong family resemblance between all those Commission Merchants systems which have for their aim to make men rich, happy and prosperous by governmental aid or social arangement. Socialism is nothing more than "paternal FLOUR, PRODUCE AND PROVISIONS government." Carried to its logical results. The same principal which inokes the aid of government to foster distressed industries at the expense of the onsumer, if carried out a little further in Vroom & Arnold, the same direction, would call upon society to suppress property for the benefit of the men who toil. Our high and dry Protectionists will feel angry at being COMMISSION MERCHANTS represented as having anything in com-mon with those abominable Socialists, but MARINE INSURANCE AGENTS. the Saturday Review shows us exactly where they stand, and any amount of fretting and fuming will not alter their position. And, after all, it is not the first, R. H. ARNOLD nor will it be the last time, that extremes have been known-unconsciously pe
