

EVENING OF A LIFE.

Lord Salisbury in Retirement at Hatfield House.

Charity and Good Works—No Man Great to Beasts Employed by Him.

(William Thorp in Washington Star.) A few months ago Lord Salisbury saved the destinies of the British empire...

Lord Salisbury has always shunned egotism and never that he has retired from politics he is more than ever content about his private life.

When my last hour grows dark for me I shall not fear Death's dreaded face to see.

The people of Hatfield say that it is a great satisfaction to see Lord and Lady Salisbury together.

It was Lady Salisbury who taught her husband to take an interest in the people of the village and help them in all their small affairs.

He takes great pleasure in looking after the welfare of his dead wife's pensioners. There is a little girl at Hatfield to whom she used to be kind.

When the writer was staying at Hatfield, he saw the best of the old man.

Lord Salisbury is a man who is not only a great statesman but also a great philanthropist.

He is a man who has done much for the poor and the unfortunate.

His life has been one of charity and good works.

THE GAMEY CASE.

Interesting Evidence That Was Ruled Out by the Ross Commission.

But Was Produced in the Ontario Legislature—The Affidavits of Three Witnesses Read by Dr. Nesbitt, M. L. A.

The Royal Commission in the Gamey-Stratton inquiry raised out a good deal of interesting evidence.

It is in the Ontario Legislature that this evidence was produced.

The affidavits of three witnesses were read by Dr. Nesbitt, M. L. A.

The first affidavit was read by Mr. Theobald W. H. Leavitt, organizer of the city of Toronto.

The second affidavit was read by Mr. George Palmer, of the city of Toronto.

The third affidavit was read by Mr. Dr. Nesbitt, M. L. A.

Dr. Nesbitt followed Mr. Leavitt's declaration with the ensuing affidavit:

I, Archie C. Davis, of the city of Rochester, N. Y., insurance agent, make oath and say:

On Friday, the 10th day of April, 1903, I met one G. B. Wilson at my office in Buffalo, N. Y.

Wilson asked me to call and see him at the hotel which I did repeatly.

Wilson said that he had a letter from Dr. Nesbitt, M. L. A.
