ST. PATRICK'S DAY TEA

The Sunday School room of St. Paul's United Church was the scene of a delightful and beautifully arranged St. Patrick's Day Tea, on Thursday afternoon, March 16th, from 3.30 to 5.30 o'clock.
The hall was artistically decorated with festoons of green and white, and shamrock "cut-outs". This was a competitive tea, the ladies presiding over the different tables, vying with each other to see which one could have the most beautiful or most original table. Those in charge of tables were Mrs. W. A. MacQuarrie, Mrs. W. McDavall, Mrs. D. A. McAary, Mrs. D. H. VanWart, Mrs. W. B. Morton, and Mrs. D. H. Matheson. The tables were all attractive, and the voting was very close, the prizes going to Mrs. MacQuarrie for the most beautiful, and Mrs. Matheson for the most original. The green and white decorations, St. Patrick favors, silver services, and fine china, added greatly to the setting.
Those assisting in serving were Mrs. L. M. Sherwood, Mrs. B. M. Berry, Mrs. James Reith, Mrs. W. R. Clark, Mrs. J. R. Lockhart, Mrs. T. J. Scott, Mrs. W. P. Scott, Miss Joyce Rideout, and Miss Margaret McDavall.
—Mrs. Garfield Larlee was in charge of the tickets, and Mrs. R. G. MacFarlane welcomed the guests. A photograph supplied Irish jigs and songs.
—A substantial sum was realized for the work of the Ladies Circle.

BADMINTON

The third Annual Tournament of the Anglian Badminton Club was brought to a conclusion on Saturday afternoon, with champions being declared in all classes except the Ladies' Doubles Final, which has been postponed for a later date.
The ladies' Singles and Mixed Doubles titles were undefeated, and new title holders in the persons of Miss McFarlane in the Singles, and Miss Morton and R. W. Reade in the Mixed Doubles, came to the fore. All other titles were successfully defended by the former holders.
Miss Joyce Rideout challenged Miss Della MacFarlane at every turn but the latter's superior coolness and powerful stroking spelled victory after three hard fought games.
Morris Rottenburg going all the way out, took a close first game from Ronald Reade, but didn't have the reserve to come through in the next two games. W. A. Ketchen and George Birnie, making F. Dodd Tweedie the target of all their efforts were completely swept off the courts with his savage attack, and quickly faded out of the picture, 15-12, 15-12.
Miss Muriel Morton and R. W. Reade, a pair playing together for the first time, had the utmost difficulty in reaching the final, Miss Joyce Rideout and Morris Rottenburg almost taking the decision in the semi-final round. Miss Morton completely outgeneraled them for the last three vital points in the deciding game. Miss Constance Richards and T. M. Barry were manoeuvred completely in the final, Miss Morton and R. W. Reade came through the gruelling handicap Singles event, without the loss of a game.
At conclusion of play, Rev. N. Franckett, Honorary President of the Club, presented the successful contestants with Caps put up each year for competition.
The scoring:
LADIES' SINGLES: Miss Della MacFarlane defeated Miss Joyce Rideout, 11-3; 14-11; 11-5.
MIXED DOUBLES: W. A. Ketchen and George Birnie defeated T. M. Barry and Morris Rottenburg, 15-12, 15-12, 15-12; F. Dodd Tweedie and R. M. Reade defeated W. B. Morton and Morris Rottenburg, 15-12, 15-11.
SINGLES: Miss Muriel Morton, and R. W. Reade defeated Miss Joyce Rideout and Morris Rottenburg, 15-7, 12-15, 17-14; Miss Constance Richards and T. M. Barry defeated Miss Della MacFarlane and F. Dodd Tweedie, 15-12, 15-5.

Who's Who in Ottawa

On March 12, 1933, an escort of twelve dragoons accompanied a cocked-hatted former resident of the village of Speedwell, Ontario, to his home to the House of Parliament, where, with all the pomp and ceremony which attends the usual vice-regal act, this citizen declared the 17th parliament of Canada open for business. As he read the speech from the throne, the other viceroy carried in his words to every part of the Dominion and the United States. Just another in the long list of honours accorded to Mr. Lyman P. Duff, vice-regal act, this citizen declared the 17th parliament of Canada open for business.
