

THE WEATHER.

Maritime—Light variable winds, light local rains, but mostly fair and moderately warm.

Toronto, Ont., July 20.—Light local showers have occurred today in the Lake Superior district and also in the Maritime Provinces, while elsewhere in Canada the weather has been fine and moderately warm.

New England Forecast. Boston, Mass., July 20.—Forecast for Boston and vicinity: Fair Wednesday and Thursday, light variable winds.

Big Passenger List. The Calvin Austin arrived from Boston yesterday morning with 835 passengers.

Are Recovering. Mr. and Mrs. Callahan, the victims of a driving accident a few days ago, left the hospital yesterday and proceeded home.

Street Car Accident. While getting off a street car on Main street, near St. Luke's church yesterday, Timothy O'Connor, 40 Harrison street, fell on his face sustaining slight injury.

Summering in Nova Scotia. Prof. Davis, of the General Theological Seminary, New York, who, with Mrs. Davis and child, has been spending the summer in Nova Scotia, passed through the city yesterday en route to New York.

Returned to Asylum. Louis Goldstein, a former inmate of the Provincial Hospital, was found acting queerly on King street yesterday afternoon. He was returned to the hospital by Policeman Gosline. Goldstein was recently allowed his freedom at the solicitation of his friends. He has been an inmate of the asylum for the past six months.

Call Not Yet Received. Rev. H. D. Marr stated last night that he had as yet received no official word of his reported call to the Portland street church, and Aid. R. T. Hayes, of the governing body said that none had been received in probability a committee will wait upon Mr. Marr in the near future submitting to him the call. It is not known whether or not he will accept.

Banker Transferred. Mr. P. C. R. Harris, who has been accountant with the local branch of the Union Bank of Halifax for the past eight months has been transferred and left yesterday for Halifax. Mr. Harris, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Walker Leonard of Halifax, will tour the Milford Lakes before proceeding to Halifax. They will be away a week. Mr. Harris has made many friends during his stay in the city who will regret to learn of his departure.

From The Press Conference. Mr. E. W. McCready, editor of the Daily Telegraph, arrived home yesterday from England, where he represented the Press of New Brunswick at the Imperial Press Conference. Mr. McCready left for the old country in June and was present at many interesting events, among which were visits to the fleets at Portsmouth and the field day of the troops at Aldershot, the largest military camp in the Empire.

Memorial Sites Sanctioned. At a meeting of the Common Council yesterday afternoon the question of sites for the Tilley and Champlain memorial statues was brought up. After a brief discussion it was unanimously decided to place the former on the southwest corner of King Square and Charlotte street and the latter in the centre of the Queen Square.

Influx of Tourists. Yesterday brought a large influx of tourists to the city and last night the hotels were filled with those who have fled the United States in an effort to side-step the cares of business and the discomfort of the hot weather. The Calvin Austin of the Eastern Steamship Line arriving during the forenoon brought 835 passengers, while the Governor Cobb arriving in the evening also carried a large passenger list.

It Pays to Keep Awake. That it is not advisable for men who have "taken a nap" to linger in the benches of the men's waiting room at the Union Depot until the wee small hours of the morning, was forcibly illustrated last night some time after the arrival of the Boston train. Four men of questionable sobriety, were peacefully dozing on the side bench when Officer Smith, politely requested them to leave the room. They paid no heed to his request however, so that he found it necessary to apply a little force into the argument with the result that the nearest fellow, who was short and stout and easy to handle, found himself dangling in the air for a tenth of a second and out the waiting room door in another second. He was left for an instant to pilot his own way to the front door while the other officer administered well directed and vigorous kicks to two of the others, but the fourth gentleman disappointed him by finding a circuitous route around to the other side of the hall. Thus will be to those who seek to circumvent the law.

HARBOR BOARD ARTILLERY TO HAS COMPLAINT PETEWAWA BY FROM C.P.R. I.C.R. SPECIAL

Objects To Dredging On the Beacon Bar—Slight Modification In West Side Plans. Representatives of All the Batteries Will Make Trip Together This Year.

The Harbor Board held a lengthy session at which the Recorder submitted a further draft of the proposed agreement with the Government and C. P. R. relative to the West Side shore lots.

The Board has made a slight modification in the plan to ensure access to the 400 ft. strip which lies between the projected wharves and the land to be given to the C. P. R. Many other details were considered relative to the provision of sewerage through and water supply to the property to be conveyed to the C. P. R. It will be asked to give up a block of land which they hold in the Carleton mill pond.

The Recorder also reported on the complaints as to the interference with the fisheries by the dredging and pointed out that the city had not authorized any such action and was therefore not responsible.

The detachments of the 3rd Regiment, C. A. leave for Petewawa by a special I. C. R. train on Saturday at 4 p.m. Each battery sends 40N.C.O.'s and men besides all its officers.

This is the first year that the detachments have gone to camp together. Previously each proceeded separately and one detachment was finishing its practice as its successor arrived. This mode of transportation made it difficult to have the men properly fed on the route and the representations of the regiment at the Canadian Artillery Association urged strongly that the arrangements be changed. Their suggestion was adopted and the mode of transportation will this year be tried as an experiment. It is also felt that it will be much more pleasant to have all the representatives of the regiment in camp at the same time.

The work this year will be the same as on previous occasions and will be practically a repetition of that done at the inspection, so far as drill is concerned. Two series are fired, direct and indirect. The first is at a target visible from the battery; the other when the target can not be seen from the guns. Orders and information are transmitted by signalers, each battery having a staff of excellent signalers. The firing of the batteries has been very good in the past and the officers expect better results this year than on previous occasions as the men who have gone to camp each year are naturally much better trained than they were when the 47 guns were first taken into use.

DIED AT ST. ANDREWS.

Mr. D. J. McLaughlin's Death Was Learned of With Regrets By Many Friends.

The news reached this city yesterday of the death of Mr. D. J. McLaughlin. He passed away at St. Andrews, where he had been visiting his daughter, Mrs. George Babbitt. Down to a year ago Mr. McLaughlin enjoyed good health, when indication of heart disease appeared, and though he was still active and cheerful, his family was never quite free from anxiety concerning him. But to Mr. McLaughlin's friends the news of his death came unexpectedly.

Mr. McLaughlin was well known and highly respected in business circles throughout the province. Few citizens of St. John had a larger circle of personal friends. He was one of the senior business men in this city, and was connected with several activities. Having served his apprenticeship in the drug trade he established a business of his own. Later he removed to the country, bought a farm, and devoted himself to agriculture.

It was after these experiences that Mr. McLaughlin went into the business in connection with which he came to be best known. He acquired 12 properties and carried on extensive lumber operations on the Salisbury and Petitcodiac rivers, carrying on also a general lumber trade with headquarters in this city.

A Liberal in politics, Mr. McLaughlin supported his party in elections down to 1896, when he joined Dr. Pugsley in the independent movement, and became the candidate for St. John city and county. Dr. Pugsley running for the city. Both candidates lost their deposit, but this was what Mr. McLaughlin probably expected.

He sat in the city council as alderman-at-large in 1894, having joined the tax reduction organization. Mr. McLaughlin served a term as president of the Board of Trade and was for many years an active member of the executive of the board.

He was a consistent and devoted member of the Centenary Methodist church in which he long held an official position.

Mr. McLaughlin was highly respected in the business community and gave his time and services freely to the advancement of the interests of the city and port. He was in all respects a good citizen, and by his kindness of heart and genial manner made and retained friends wherever he lived.

PASTOR WELCOMED.

Fairville Methodists Held Reception For Rev. George R. Ross, Their New Pastor.

The vestry of the Fairville Methodist church was the scene last evening of a pleasant function when the members of the congregation assembled to their numbers to extend the right hand of fellowship to their new pastor, Rev. George R. Ross.

Added interest was given to the occasion by the chair being occupied by Rev. W. W. Lodge, a former pastor, who is still borne in loving remembrance.

The chairman welcomed Mr. Ross on behalf of the members in a few well chosen words and assured him of the loyalty which awaited him. The Rev. Mr. Ross replied in a feeling and fitting manner and said he saw every indication of goodwill, harmony and prosperity and earnestly besought these things as tokens of sympathy and co-operation in the carrying out of his sacred obligation.

Mr. Ross was accompanied to Fairville by his wife and two children from Hampton where he had been stationed for the past three years. Mr. Ross is a native of Charlottetown, P. E. I., but has been resident in New Brunswick since his ordination in 1900. Mrs. Ross is the youngest daughter of Robert Hay, a native of New Brunswick.

Social intercourse was indulged in and during the interval the proceedings were enlivened by songs and readings by Miss Florence Stout, Mrs. (Dr.) Curran and Miss Greta Fortis.

BANKERS REGATTA.

It Will Be One of the Features in August at Rothesay.

Plans for a Bankers' Regatta to be held on the Kennebecasis during the month of August are now engaging the attention of a number of the local bankers. It is proposed to conduct the affair similarly to the annual regatta held in Halifax. Provision is being made for competitive aquatic sports of all kinds. The entry list to be confined to the bankers of the city. While the scheme was only mooted yesterday committees from the several local bank agencies have already been appointed. These will meet in the near future when the detailed plans for the day will be agreed upon.

R. K. Y. C. Dance. Two buses full of very gay but rather weary young folks were deposited at the foot of King street at the wee small hour of 2:30 this morning after enjoying a dance at the R. K. Y. Club at Millidgeville. After the dance a couple of buses, holding about twenty persons each, were crowded with the young people and they were carried as far as Market square, stopping at intermediate points.

D. B. Donald, who has been quite ill, was resting more comfortably last evening. Many friends will be pleased to learn of the improvement.
