Nickel's Fine Shows Get Big Crowds.

Nickel Theatre people claim to believe the current week will establish a record for mid-summer business, as the crowds of Monday and yesterday evening. The new show for tonight and Thursday strengthens this belief as it is of unusual merit. A whole reel of excellent Selig photographs is being devoted to a pictorial ascent of Mt. Tamaltai, a notable peak in the golden state of California. Lovers of rich scenery will enjoy this number. The new Biograph drama "In the Border States" will be another picture feature, whilst "Paul," an Italian drama will add a dash of romance of that delightful European flavor. In the comedy line a very funny film is booked, namely, "Romeo and Juliet in our Town." Miss Betty Donn will close her engagement this week and tonight will conclude her rendering of the summertime hit "If I Were a Rose." Tomorrow she sings a new number, Mr. Geo. Lund of New York seemed to please everybody last night with his lecture and will continue today and during the remainder of the week both afternoon and evening. During the matinees today, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, 100 toy air-planes will be given away to the boys and girls and already the town is dotted with these scientific playthings which are giving plenty of enjoyment. The Nickel's fine feature for next week will be "Those Boston Girls" quartette, a cultured combination of vocalists, charmingly gowned and direct from the best houses in the city. Watch the papers for particulars.

Accident to Dredge Cynthia.

CITY AND RAILWAY CO. ARE STILL SPARRING

Who Shall Fence Rodney Wharf Seems to be Vexed Question—Both Sides Disclaim All Responsibility.

Ald. McGoldrick, chairman of the Board of Public Works, when asked what action the city would take upon the recommendation of the grand jury that a fence should be built along the Rodney wharf and lights installed at intervals, said that was a matter that would come more to engage the attention of the council as a whole. "The situation is peculiar," he added, "and how we will solve the difficulty is more than I can say at present. The Street Railway Company disclaims responsibility, and the city does not believe it has any right to erect the fence. The street railway officials say they asked permission some years ago to erect a fence along the edge of the wharf, and that the late city engineer refused them the necessary permission, claiming that it wasn't the place to build a fence along a wharf."

"Whether the council confirmed the action of the engineer I don't remember, but certain it is that the wharf has been useless as a berth for vessels since the Street Railway Company started running cars down it every eight minutes. And likewise it seems to me, that it is the fact of the cars running along the wharf that makes it dangerous. "The recorder holds to that view, and declares that it is the duty of the street railway to erect a fence, and provide any safeguards necessary. On the other hand the street railway's legal advisors seem to think that the street railway has no responsibility, basing their contention on the statement that they were once refused permission to erect a fence. So there you are. "Something however, will have to be done about it, and I intend to bring the matter up at a special meeting of the Board of Works which will be held shortly."

EXPECT EIGHTY-FIVE BOYS IN Y.M.C.A. CAMP

Many of the Larger Towns in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia Will be Largely Represented.

W. H. Moor, boy's secretary of the Y. M. C. A. returned from Moncton yesterday, where he has been lecturing in connection with the Y. M. C. A. boys' camp at Roberson's Point, St. John River. He expects twenty-five recruits from the railway town. On his way to Moncton Mr. Moor stopped off at Sussex, where he got several soldiers to attend the camp. There will be about 85 boys from 14 to 18 years of age at camp this year. Twenty five or thirty will go from this city, about 15 from Yarmouth, six from Annapolis and representatives from Digby, Wolfville, Newcastle and Campbellton. Mr. Moor intends to visit Fredericton and St. Stephen to stimulate the interest of the association members there. The training camp of last year will be abolished and the whole efforts of the association men of the Maritime Provinces devoted to those at New Glasgow and Robertson's Point, at both of which a certain amount of instruction will be a feature.

ANDREW ROSSI CONFESSED TO SHOOTING SIRACUSO

Detective Killen Gave Evidence to This Effect at the Inquest Last Night—Other Witnesses Testified and Inquiry Was Adjourned Until Thursday Evening Next.

That the young Italian, Andrew Rossi alias dy Rose, confessed when arrested to having shot and robbed Diego Siracusano on the night of June 26th, with the disclosure made at the inquiry which was resumed before the coroner's jury in the court house last evening. Detective Killen in the course of his evidence told the court, that after finding the prisoner's revolver some hours after his arrest, Rossi volunteered the information that the empty chamber of the revolver had been fired by him and also confessed for what purpose. Five witnesses were examined last evening, and the inquiry was adjourned until 7 o'clock Thursday evening when the evidence of Dr. W. W. White, who conducted the post mortem on the body of Siracusano, will be taken, and that of another witness who was present last evening.

During the inquiry last evening Rossi did not show the same spirit of coolness and indifference which had characterized his demeanor since his arrest. That he was understood and realized that the evidence of the detective went to him could be plainly seen. When statements of a damaging nature were made against him he showed his face in a pale hands and made his head, while his expression and his nervous movement plainly showed that he was suffering from a great agony.

Hearing Resumed. Upon the inquiry being opened Joseph John, a brother of Mrs. Orle, or, was called. He told of having seen a revolver in Rossi's possession on several occasions and identified the revolver produced by Detective Killen, as he once saw it. He saw the possession of Rossi. Witness said he worked with prisoner at John De Angelis's shoe shine parlor and always thought him to be a fine fellow. He knew that Rossi was compelled to go to court on one occasion for fighting. He was in Diego's store about 12.30 on the night previous to the shooting.

Statements made by witness here did not correspond with his evidence given on the last day of the inquiry, which was read over by the clerk. John White was the next witness. He knew Diego Siracusano for about one month previous to the shooting. Witness was in Diego's store about seven o'clock on the evening of Saturday, June 26, Andy, Rossi, and Minnie Jones were in the store. Witness went away and returned at 11 o'clock again and found Rossi still in charge of the store. He told Rossi to tell Diego that he would call to see him on Sunday. Rossi replied that "there would be no one there on tomorrow." Witness asked why and Rossi replied that there would be no one there. Rossi had a revolver in his hand when witness first visited the store at 7 o'clock.

Detective Killen produced the revolver which Rossi had thrown away on the Marsh Road and witness identified it as similar to the one which he had seen in Rossi's possession. He said he was next sworn to said he was night watchman in the I.C.R. yard. About four o'clock on the Sunday morning of the shooting he was accosted by two men, who took him to be foreigners. He could not say that either of the men answered the description of Rossi, who was made to stand with his hat on so that witness could if possible identify him.

Sergeant James Campbell called, told of entering Diego's store at 25 North street on Sunday afternoon of June 26th and of finding things in a general disordered condition. From the condition of the place it appeared to witness as if there had been a row. Detective Killen's Evidence. Detective Patrick Killen was then called. On Sunday evening of June 26th he said he was notified that an assault had been committed upon a man at 37 North street. He visited the house in company with Deputy Chief Jenkins and found things in a very disordered condition. He saw marks of blood on the walls and also at the head of the bed. The blood looked as if it had been placed upon the wall by some one in a struggle. After leaving the building they made inquiries from several persons about the men and place.

Witness then described the capture of Rossi by him at the railway station at Westford. Witness said that at 2 o'clock on the morning of the shooting he was not "Andy" it is John. Witness asked him if his name was not Rossi. The prisoner did not make any reply. He then searched the prisoner on the train and found a watch and some money. He asked Rossi who owned the watch and Rossi replied that it belonged to the prisoner. Witness then asked him if it did not belong to Diego and the prisoner replied that it did. Witness found $48.10 in the prisoner's possession, and upon being questioned by witness he admitted that it belonged to Siracusano.

Witness produced the money, and also a gold ring which he had taken from Rossi's finger. In conversation with Witness on the train the prisoner said that he had walked out to the Three Mile House on Sunday morning and had thrown away his revolver there. Witness then told of going to the spot with the prisoner and recovering the weapon, which was hidden under a culvert. It was a 32 caliber revolver with six chambers and every chamber contained a shell and but one of the shells was fired. Witness said anything he might say would be used against him. The prisoner admitted that he had shot the cartridge from the revolver, and for what purpose he had shot it.

John De Angelis was then called. He knew Diego Siracusano. The last time he saw him was on the Friday previous to the shooting. The prisoner Rossi was employed by witness for about two weeks. Witness thought prisoner honest when in his employ. He did not exhibit any ill temper and did his work well. Tony Vandell was out of the city now. His business called him away occasionally.

This concluded the evidence and Coroner Bowman announced that the inquiry would be adjourned until Thursday evening at 7 o'clock. As the grand jury in the supreme court were yesterday discharged, the next sitting of the court before Judge Landry in September.

The quarterly meeting of the Church of England Synod were opened yesterday at 10 a. m. in the C. of E. Institute, with the Bishop of Fredericton in the chair. There were eight clergymen and eight lay delegates present.

The business at the various sessions was mostly of a routine character. The finance committee, the committee of statistics and the state of the church met during the morning and prepared a report for submission to the Synod.

Bishop Richardson Reports. The Bishop presented a report on his trip to the mother country, giving an account of his work, and stating that he expected that as a result of his efforts three or four English clergymen would come out to New Brunswick this fall and assume charge of parishes here.

Grant to Divinity Students. A grant was made to two divinity students for college purposes, and a sum of money voted to defray the expenses of the work among the men of the lumber camps during the winter. Twelve divinity students were assigned to various parishes for the summer vacation.

The treasurer submitted a report showing the condition of the mission fund, and the expenses incurred last year. The meetings will continue till Thursday.

PICNIC PARTIES ALL TO CANVASS FOR NEW PETITION FOR PAVING

Four Very Successful Outings Were Held Yesterday--The Weather Man Was in His Kindest Mood.

Yesterday, as a great day for picnics. No less than four were held and all were well attended. The weather was fine and conditions ideal for just such outings.

Portland Methodist Church held its picnic on the new Methodist Picnic Grounds at Ipsworth Park. There was a large attendance and the new grounds were found to be very pleasant.

The steamer Hampton took a large number of members and friends of Exmouth Street Methodist church to Watter's Landing in the morning. Spots were taken for the day.

Another successful outing was that of the St. John's (Stone) church at Westfield. "Rains" left at 9.00 a. m. and 1.15 p. m. the return trip being made about 100 p. m. The following is a list of the winners of the sporting events:

Flower Contest: Florence Climo 1st; Margaret Carritte 2nd.
The annual parish picnic of St. Joachim's Church, Silver Falls, was held yesterday and was eminently successful from every standpoint. Long before the hour of opening, the picnicers had gathered in large crowds. Hundreds attended from the city, and everything combined to make the day enjoyable.

A snappy exhibition of baseball between two teams from the St. Joseph's Y. M. S. was a rare treat for the country folk.

"Well, Silas did you enjoy your trip to London? What did you find new there?"

"Why, somethin' wuth seein'. The hull place is full o' cabs with cash registers on 'em, an' red flags to show folks it's dangerous to dispute the fare. They call 'em taxi-cabs, cause if you don't mind the drivers 'll jest take the skin off ya."

YOUNG CLERGYMEN TO LOCATE IN PROVINCE

Bishop Richardson Expects Three or Four from England Will Take Up Work -- Synod Committees Meet.

About 48 fresh air children filled a special car over to Seaside Park yesterday afternoon, with eight members of the King's Daughters in charge. The start was made at 2 o'clock and they were met at the park by "the merry-go-round man" who gave them a free joy ride.

The afternoon was spent in games and digging in the sand, and about 5 o'clock an excellent tea was served, part of the provisions for which had been given by friends of the committee, but most by the Guild itself. After supper the children were each given a small Canadian flag and a cone of ice-cream, and returned home, tired but happy.

Miss Barlow left yesterday for Round Hill, Kings County, to bring back the eight small city visitors who left some time ago for a week in the country, whom she will bring down in the steamer Champlain today.

The Lord, who is good itself and truth itself, cannot enter into a man until evils and falsities are removed; for evil is opposite to good and falsity is opposite to truth.—Swedenborg.
