SWITZERLAND'S ARMY. The Kaiser has come and gone, says a Zurich letter. He saw an army of 200,000 men. For years he has wanted to see the Republic Militia Army of Switzerland. Finally, he frankly said he would like to be invited, and the Swiss could hardly do otherwise than invite him. He came—the first crown head to pay Switzerland an official visit. The Swiss are proud of it, expecting, perhaps, some Socialists.

Such is fame. When Claude Grahame-White, the famous aviator, was in this country not long ago, he was spending a week end at a country home. The first night he arrived, a dinner party was given. Feeling very enthusiastic over the recent flights, he began to tell the young woman who was his partner at the table of some of the details of the aviation sport. It was not until the dessert was brought on that he realized that he had been doing all the talking. Indeed, the young woman had not uttered a single word. "I am afraid I have been boring you with this shop talk," he said, feeling as if he should apologize.

"Oh, not at all," she murmured. "I'm very polite tones; "but would you mind telling me what is aviation?"

CHRISTMAS TREE FOR THE ORPHANS AT SILVER FALLS

Pleasant Time Planned for Today at the R. C. Orphanage Under Auspices of the F. M. A.

The orphans of the St. Patrick's Industrial School, Silver Falls, have been eagerly looking forward to New Year's day when they will be given their annual treat by the Father Mathew Association. Generous donations have been received by the society and this year's celebration promises to be a very happy one for the children.

The committee in charge will go out this morning and trim the huge tree with delicacies, boots, caps, stockings, ties, gloves and other articles. A collection of toys will also be displayed on the tree.

At 2:30 this afternoon the members shall with friends of the children and other invited guests will leave St. Malachi's hall in buckboards. On their arrival they will be shown through the departments of the school, and then will follow a musical and literary programme. After this the most important part of the programme will take place, when the tree will be stripped of its contents and the presents distributed among the little ones.

Mayor Frink and Commissioner Galt have been invited to attend and they will probably speak a few cheerful words to the children.

REPORTS AND DISASTERS. London, Dec. 30.—The two survivors of the Danish steamer Volmer, who was wrecked in an open sea, 100 miles to the southeast of the Lizard and landed at Newlyn by a trawler, Saturday, relate terrible experiences. The vessel was wrecked on Thursday in the great gale which raged in the English Channel. The crew abandoned the steamer, and one of the boats with nine occupants, was swamped, all the men being drowned.

MONTCALM SAILS TODAY. C. P. R. steamer Montcalm will sail today for Liverpool with one of the largest cargoes so far this season.

A BUSY PLACE. The winter port business at the West End has been at its height and large lots of freight are coming in from the west. Several grain trains have arrived during the past 24 hours and the elevator is being kept busy putting it in and delivering it to the vessels. The C. P. R. steamer Lake Champlain is due here today from London and Antwerp with a heavy cargo.

FISHING SCHOONER ASHORE. The American schooner S. F. Williams, Capt. Burton, during the heavy storm Friday, ran ashore on Winning Point Beach, Gabarus. All the crew, after much difficulty, succeeded in landing safely. The vessel now lies completely out of water at low tide. She has a cargo of 1,400 barrels of herring.

NOTICE TO MARINERS

Notice is hereby given that on December 31, 1912, while the dredge "Fiddling" was operating in the harbor, the buckets were lost, and are situated approximately 800 feet north of the buoy, boat, Partridge Island, just outside the west side of channel.

At present their location is marked by two small barrel buoys, generally used to mark dredge moorings, and in addition to which, a can buoy, painted green, will be placed to mark the obstruction, until same has been removed.
