SYNOPSIS OF CANADIAN NORTH-WEST MINING REGULATIONS.

COAL—Coal mining rights may be leased for twenty-one years, renewable at an annual rental of $1 an acre. Not more than 2,500 acres can be leased to one applicant. Royalty, five cents per ton. Incomplete development work each year staked out by the applicant in person, and personal application to the Agent of the District of Dominion Lands for the district must be made in all cases before, and the rental for the first year must be paid to the Agent within thirty days after filing application.

QUARTZ—A person eighteen years of age and over, having a discovery of mineral, may locate a claim 1,500 feet by 1,500 feet. The claim must be staked out by the claimant each year, or paid to the Mining Recorder. When $500.00 has been expended or paid and other requirements complied with, the claim may be purchased at $1 an acre.

PLACING MINING CLAIMS are 500 feet long each, and must be staked out by the claimant each year, or paid to the Mining Recorder. When $500.00 has been expended or paid and other requirements
complied with, the claim may be purchased at $1 an acre.

DEEDING—Two tracts of five miles each of a river may be leased to one applicant for a term of 25 years. Rental, $10 a mile per annum. Royalty, 2 1-2 per cent, but the output exceeds $100,000.
