Nursery Rhymes, No. 15. JOE BOGAN-IN MEMORIAM. It was a darksome windy night, And rain and sleet came teering down. When from the outskirts of the town. Joe Bogan came home "stiff and tight. A shocking hat smiled on his head, And several tears lay on his chesk; In vain he, mutt'ring, tried to speak, But speech from him long since had fied. His coat lay mildly on his back; His boots were towhides rudely made; The men who found him gently laid Him on a spike, then called a hack. They waltzed him up a flight of stairs, Then hastened to the Pharmacy, And there they purchased @sona-tea, And left him to his own affairs.

The morning dawned, and with the "sun Joe Bogan tried in vain to rise; His wife prepared a sweet surprise,' And shot him with a wooden gun. She banged him on the head and nose, Until a stream of claret flowed: And with a broom his hair she mowed, And put a corn between his toes. With grief poor Bogan that night died:
He drinks no more pale brandy cold,
Nor takes delight in whiskey old,
But in a shearse he took a ride. MORAL.

Pray do not heed this warning late;
I ask thee, lend to it an ear:
Give drinking up, renounce thy beer,
Else on a bier will be thy fate.
TENNYSON, NOTES.
