UNITED STATES. There are 109 fire, 17 marine, and 53 life insurance companies doing business in Chicago, "to show, by one satiric touch, no city needeth them so much." It is truly sad to note the many cases in which people become utterly disheartened in this world at the disappointments and discouragements which beset their th. They find that their dolls are fil with sawdust and see no use in dragging out their joyless existence any longer One of the most pathetic and mournful cases of suicide of which we have heard for a long time is that of a Milwaukee woman who hung herself lately because "whiskey didn't taste as it used to." A Mr. Labelle, of Berkshire, Vt., is very much astonished at evidences of renewing youth. He is 80 years old, and

A New Years old, and for many years was bald, but of late a new crop of black hair has started out; and after being toothless for years, he has begun cutting a new set of teeth, three being through at last accounts. In his case time seems to have turned backward in its flight, and if it should continue flying in that direction, the puzzling question is where will Mr. Labelle bring up? A New York despatch chronicles this most flendish outrage: As Walter Gibson, proprietor of the Harlem Local, was entering his office Friday evening, an un-entering his office Friday evening, an un-known person flung a tin cup full of vit-riol or muriatic acid full in his face, pro-bably destroying the sight of one if not both eyes. The perpetrator jumped into a buggy, standing near, in charge of a confederate, and disappeared. Revenge for personal attacks in his newspaper is supposed to have prompted the atack. Aha! the sea serpent has gone to Portand, probably to attend the meetings of the Science Congress. Whatever his object there he is, some thirty feet long and "as large as a man's hat," a standard of measurement, by the way, which has not been adopted by the Congress. Now if all those learned naturalists congregated at Portland would have an interview with the protection and avenue closely into his snakeship and examine closely into his claim to recognition as a wonderful monster, we might henceforth know what to make of him, but he is a slippery customer and has never yet been seen save by 10 nancing skippers or the "vera-cious" citizen whom nobody believes.

In Paris all dresses, of whatever material, intended for walking suits, are made of a convenient walking length, either just clearing the ground or, at the most, touching it at the back. For fetes and garden parties alone are walking skirts made to trail; then, of course, they come under the category of carriage and visiting toilets.

The September number of Wood's Household Magazine is on our table. We always have a good word to say for this publication—it is such a wholesouled book-so wide awake, so lively souled book—so wide awake, so lively and entertaining, yet always so chaste and refined. It is a regular little go ahead, too, as compar's m between its numbers will prove. We learn that the firm of S. S. Wood & Co. dissolved in March last, the "Co." (S. E. Shutes, Mayor of Newburgh,) retaining possession of the magazine, and recalling H. V. Osborne (Tenoroon) as editor. So, though the publication really changed hands, it has not suffered from the management of a new publisher or new editor, but under the redoubled efforts of its energetic proprietor, has gained new force and attractiveness.

Having control of the magnificent oil Having control of the magnificent oil chromo, Yosemite, the publisher is able to offer a combination of literary and artific work of genuine worth, and at prices unprecedented. This fine copy of a piece of nature's grandest work, is not presented in the usual limited style—its dimensions, 14x20, making a picture of very desirable size. In itself an ornament to the room g acid by its presence. But Received per S. S. Killarney:

An Irish Breach of Promise Case.

OLDEST ESTABLISHED MANUFACTURER tures. Ordinarily the difficulty in such IN N. B. -ESTABLISHED 25 YEARS. cases consists in adducing evidence sufficient to prove the promise given by the faithless swain, but in the case of Sheehy vs O'Leary no question arose as to the original promise. It had been only too clearly given, for the gallant defendant had gone over head and ears in effusive protestations of unalterable fidelity and declarations of his resolve to make Bessie his ever-to-be-loved wife. He even went further, and more than once addressed the lady as his "ever beloved wife," and signed himself her "ever loving husband." It is true that this impetuous anticipation of events did not last long, but the engagement itself was beyond dispute, and was of eight years' duration. The defence was that the promise given had been rescinded, while it was, on the other hand, maintained that this promise had been subsequently renewed. The upshot of the trial is that the jury have given the lady £1,875 damages, that the verdict was received by the sympathizing audience with a burst of applause, and that the judge gave the luckless defendant a parting slap by expressing a hope that Miss Sheehy would soon get a better and more worthy husband than he would have made. Of the $9,000,000 of this foan unsold on the first of June last, less than $5,000, 000 now remains, and this balance will soon be absorbed, after which the Company has resolved to issue only six per cent, bonds.

There are now between 500 and 600 miles of the road in regular operation, with a growing traffic; surveys and construction are progressing. atisfactorily; the survey prosecuted the present season in connection with the Stanley military expedition has resulted in the location of an excellent line through Western Dakota and Eastern Montana, and the Company has advertised for proposals for grading and bridg-ing the Yellowstone Division, extending 205 miles from Bismarck, at the crossing of the Missouri River to the crossing of the Yellow stone in Montana. The Company's lands (amounting to more than 20,000 acres per mile) of road) are selling to settlers at an average price of nearly six dollars per acre, and the proceeds of land sales constitute a Sinking Fund for the repurchase and cancelations of first mortgage bonds. The Company's seven and three tonths per cent. gold bonds, the last of which are now offered, yield over 8½ per cent. per annum at
