(Special Telegram to Tribune.) Talk About Jenkins-Tupper's Estimate and Cartwright's Deficit. OTTAWA, July 24.

Private advices received here state that Agent General Jenkins has created strong feelings in England by voting for Dr. Butt's Home Rule motion. Jenkins writes to the London Times defending his vote, and stating it was consistent with his writings. The Grits here are disgusted with him. The Free Press (Ministerial) says it would be well for Mr. Jenkins to forget his writings and speeches of times past. If he endeavors to shape his Parliamentary course so as to be consistent with them he will be able to count his political career a short one. Last session the Hon. Dr. Tupper estimated the surplus of the Revenue on the year's transactions at five hundred thousand dollars, and the returns for the year ending 30th June show that the receipts exceed the expenditure by over four hundred thousand dollars. Cartwright's deficit caunot be discovered. LONDON, July 23. A PRINCE'S PENSION. In the House of Commons this evening Mr. Disraeli moved for an annual grant to Prince Leopold of $75,000. He eulogized the intellectual and scientific attainments of the Prince, whose health, he said, prevented him from adopting a profession. Mr. Gladstone seconded the motion. Mr. Taylor, member for Leicester, LIGHT SUMMER PRINTS made a brief speech, protesting against the grant, but Disraeli's motion was

Mr. Howland on Canada First. The prospect is that there will be a good audience at the Institute this evening. There is no charge for admission, the Maritime National Club paying all expenses. We hope to see a good representation of St John ladies present, as we know that Mr. Howland's oratory will please them, his patriotism inspire them, and his revelations instruct them. Women should understand politics and national movements, and should not fail to avail themselves of opportunities such as is offered to-night.

It is finally settled that the electic trial is to commence at the Court House St. Andrews, on the 18th of August nex Messrs. Grimmer and Macmonagle appear for complainants, and Messrs. On Tuesday afternoon, a young man engaged in loading a vessel with sleepers at the steamboat wharf, St. Andrews, fell off the wharf about 30 feet below the light house, carrying a sleeper with him. The tide being low he fell on the stones, but, strange to say, received no material injuries.—Courier.

The cause of the Count de Paris's unpopularity, or rather want of popularity is his extreme penuriousness, a feature in which he resembles his grandfather, Louis Philippe. When he broke up his establishment in London to return to France he gave not the smallest present to any one of his servants, some of whom had lived with him for years, but dismissed them with their usual wages

An effort is being made in the Senate of the University of London to have a new charter applied for under which the University may confer degrees upon wo-men. The Senate is in favor of extending the scope of the educational advantages now offered to women, but is not prepar ed to ask for the new charter, the division on the question being 17 to 10.

These figures promise well for the ultimate success of the movement.
