SUFFERING WOMEN

who find life a burden, can have health and strength restored by the use of

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

The present generation of women and girls have more than their share of misery. With some it is nervousness and palpitation, with others weak, dizzy and fainting spells, while with others there is a general collapse of the system. Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills tone up the nerves, strengthen the heart and make it beat strong and regular, create new red blood corpuscles, and impart that sense of buoyancy to the spirits that is the result of renewed mental and physical vigor.

Mrs. D. O. Donoghue, Orillia, Ont., writes: "For over a year I was troubled with nervousness and heart trouble. I decided to give Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills a trial, and after using five boxes I found I was completely cured. I always recommend them to my friends."

Price 50 cents per box or three boxes for $1.25, all dealers or The T. Milburn Co., Limited Toronto, Ont.

was the heart and soul of an institution that has proved a shelter in time of storm and a sure foothold on a steep and rugged path to many a traveller beaten and buffeted by storms of misfortune and sin. His last thoughts were given to those whom he had loved and for whom he had labored unceasingly for twenty years.

Of good family and surrounded during childhood with purest influences, he yet fell a victim to alcohol when he left home to study medicine, and took the downward grade, going lower and lower, until the years had worn away the patience and love of every friend except his wife. After fifteen years of virtual madness the change came as he sat in a saloon contemplating suicide. Yielding to a mighty spiritual influence that suddenly filled his being, he vowed never to touch liquor again, and to strengthen the resolution went to the police station and had himself locked up.

Later, he found his way to Jerry Mc. Auley's mission on Water Street, and was there encouraged to keep alive the flame of his flickering manhood. Four years later he took Mc. Auley's place as superintendent of the mission; and during the twenty years that have followed he has established more than forty rescue homes, and has influenced for good nearly 100,000 people. These homes are entirely undenominational, where the only necessary qualification for Jew or Gentile, bond or free, black or white, is that he shall need help.

Of his methods, Hadley once wrote: "If he (a released convict) makes his way to our mission, he is sheltered, fed, and clothed if need be, and put to work at something. He is asked no questions. No promises are exacted. He has no rules to observe except the one rule of order. He is not lectured on his past. He is not exhorted. Although this is essentially a religious institution, neither Bible nor tract is forced upon him.

"He is left to himself without restraint of any kind. He is neither watched nor suspected. He is usually puzzled to know what the whole thing means. He is treated as a brother; as if he were the best man in the world. Sometimes he comes to the conclusion that he has a "snap," and proceeds to "work it for all it is worth." He takes advantage of confidence and steals whatever of value he can lay his hands on, and departs with a chuckle. Sooner or later, he is driven back again, by hunger, to the one place where he can get shelter and food. On his return he is met with the same welcome, the same kindness.

"Again and again he may show the cloven foot, but at last he finds that in the Old McAuley Water Street Mission there is a stock of love that cannot be exhausted; that here, if nowhere else, the spirit of the Founder of Christianity is in full force. It is no wonder that as a usual thing, the tough heart of the criminal is finally broken by the glorious principle of love, and he becomes a practical, earnest Christian."

A LAND MARK ESTABLISHED 1881.

Fleming's Seed Store is without a doubt the pioneer establishment of the seed business and its many branches in the North West, growing from a small store to a well equipped, commodious and up to date establishment, where the people of the North West can get their wants filled with dispatch and care by experienced hands.

Mr. James Johnson, manager of the Fleming's Seed Store, was for many years connected with the firm of the late Mr. Wm. Evans, who was seedsman to the Province of Quebec. Mr. Johnson was raised on the farm, worked in the trial gardens, and managed the conservatories therefore making him a practical man in every sense of the word, he was for twelve years assistant secretary of the Montreal Horticultural and Agricultural society, which was second only to Philadelphia in point of membership, further the M. H. S. took one of the leading parts in the spreading of pomology, etc., in Canada. Previous to Experimental farms being established it devolved on the M. H. S. to go abroad with exhibits to uphold the honor of Canada, winning medals at Philadelphia, Boston, etc. Mr. Johnson assisted at the collection of fruits, grain, etc., for Chicago, St. Louis, Glasgow, Paris, etc.

Mr. Johnson having travelled extensively in Europe and all parts of the United States in search of information for the advancement of agriculture and horticulture, etc., will be glad at all times to lend his aid to those desiring it, and would deem it a favor to exchange views in trials and experiments. To sum up, it will certainly be advantageous to agriculturists and horticulturists to deal with a house so well known, for reliability and square dealing, whose stock of seeds, etc., are entirely new and fresh. Visitors to the city of Brandon are invited to call and look over the Sure to grow Seeds. Send a trial order.

The Singing Tone of the New Scale Williams Piano

is a revelation to the keenest critic. The harmony is perfect. The treble, middle and bass ring true and clear when sounded separately, and blend perfectly. The tone has a purity and sweetness, a richness and volume, that delight the musical ear.

"Its sympathetic singing quality and richness of tone, render it invaluable for accompaniment purposes."—Alfred De Seve, Solo Violinist, Montreal.

Our New Catalogue Is Out

OUR Spring and Summer Catalogue is now being distributed, and if you have not received a copy let us know at once, that we may send you one. We were proud of the first catalogue we issued from our Winnipeg store, but our Spring and Summer issue is a very great improvement on it.

It is larger and more complete and we believe we know the needs of the west better than we ever did before.

Another thing, our store is in better working order than when we started eight months ago, so that we believe we can serve our patrons better than heretofore.

To launch a business the magnitude of our Winnipeg enterprise was a mighty task. It required hard work, both physical and mental, the worst, we hope is past, and henceforth it will be a matter of perfecting our machinery and studying your needs.

At any rate, write for the Catalogue. It is sent free and it is valuable as a price reference, and a standard of style for both men and women.
