Bigger and Better for Less Money

THE CANADIAN COURIER

Published at 181 Simcoe St., Toronto, by the Courier Press, Limited. Subscription Price: Canada and Great Britain, $2.00 per year; postage to United States, $1.00 per year; other foreign postage, $2.00 per year. IMPORTANT: Changes of address should be sent two weeks before the date they are to go into effect. Both old and new addresses must be given. CANCELLATIONS: We find that most of our subscribers prefer not to have their subscriptions interrupted in case they fail to remit before expiration. Unless we are notified to cancel, we assume the subscriber wishes the service continued.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS

You will have noticed that with the issue of Oct. 7 the price has been reduced from 10 cents to 5 cents per copy.

EXTENSIONS

In keeping with this we are extending all subscriptions, so that the subscriber will receive extra copies sufficient to make up for the reduction in price.

THIS number contains considerable music. But it is not a Music Number. The only man we ever knew who candidly did not like music in any shape or form, was a deaf man. Some people like music but don't like reading about it. A lot of people don't care for musical criticism because the kind of music they like is not the kind that a critic would have much use for.

WITH so much special matter to get in, we have found it necessary to hold over the second instalment of the Woman-at-Home article promised for this week. Chess also has been swept off the boards for this week. Devotees of that department will kindly have patience with an occasional lapse of this kind. Next week we shall include a double instalment of the serial, "The Blind Man's Eyes," and a summary of the story up to date, so that new subscribers may get the benefit of the most thrilling continued story ever published in the Canadian Courier.
