Mighty Casey struck out", the familiar poem says. On day, the UNB Red Bombers never even got into the game. makes one wonder why UNB cannot win football games. had held the powerful Navy to a seven point victory X was only able to defeat Shearwater 13-12), Acadia had n St. Dunstans 28-6, but then, this was Acadia's first win somber fans looked forward to seeing a pleasant and vicafternoon against the Axemen . . . but . . . the UNB e was porous, their offence, although explosive, was para-Collegally impotent and the result was a Bomber defeat from

t's difficult to pick out what is the problem with this Bomber team. They appear to have the offence with QB pherson and backs Harding, Logie, St. Germaine, James and liffe but for some reason, they have been ineffectual in first two starts. There have been periods of spectacular Buchana ing and passing but the final point output has been anook Gy Obviously, the Bomber pass defence is weak to the point ging ridiculous, but this is not the whole answer. The Queen bers do not appear to be a polished aggregation. They are LB rently afflicted with that common malady of many ball s - they can move the ball well between the thirty and hirty but as they go beyond, they sputter, fizzle and die. Beaver

Next week sees the Dalhousie Tigers invading College Field. week they were easily handled by St. Dunstans and if gister in can go by previous games, the Bombers also should easily ort mandle Dal.

This weekend clearly will be the Bombers last chance to themselves. After Saturday, they will be running head on the power of the Bluenose circuit with successive enan Dickaters against Mt. Allison, St. Marys and St. FX. Hutche

Axe Bombers xemen

The highly spirited and organized Acadia University Axemen put the hatchet to the not - so - highly spirited Red Bombers in a regularly scheduled Bluenose Conference tilt played at College Field last Saturday afternoon. The game, played before a packed house, was the league opener for the hometown squad.

The game, except for a few brief spurts of offensive display, was mainly one of the back and forth, trench warfare type.

Under Courtice's leadership the big Red was unable to mount any kind of sustained attack. As a result, the Axemen led 3-0 at quarter time on a 27 yard field goal by halfback Keith Caldwell.

Houston MacPherson replaced Courtice before the end of the first quarter and although he displayed the same ramblescramble tactics so successfully employed in last week's loss to Navy, the offence just couldn't get rolling

In the second quarter, sophmore halfback Laurie Schwartz, a two-way player for the Axemen, scored his first major of the game on a ten yard end sweep, eluding a handful of Red Bomber tacklers. Caldwell's convert attempt was good and Acadia held a 10-0 lead.

The Bombers then caught fire taking the ball down to the Acadia 4 yd. line from midfield. On the last play of the half, MacPherson rolled out on the option play and carried to the one as the gun

The third quarter was scoreless but in the penalty-ridden final quarter, the Red Bombers finally managed to dent the tight Acadia defense as they marched 65 yards in six plays with halfback Pete Harding going over from the six. The highlight of this march was a 41 yard jaunt by QB MacPherson. The TD was converted by Bob Cooper and Acadia's lead was cut to three, Acadia 10-UNB 7.

Then, with less than five minutes remaining Laurie Schwartz scored his second touchdown of the game on a play similar to his first major, a ten yard run around the Bomber left side. Caldwell converted and the score remained at 17-7 until the final gun.
