How do you feel about Henry Morgentaler's acquittal on charges of conspiring to procure an abortion?

Christine Crowe, Public Policy III
"I agree with the jury and I think it's a signal to the government that the legislation should be changed."

Lydia Leong, Arts IV
"I think that is awful because I feel that is killing a life. It shows the morals of society are going down."

Panos Komitas, Economics III
"Yes, we ought to be able to have them but no, he shouldn't have been acquitted because after all he was breaking the law."

Lucy Chimienti, Arts II
"I don't feel he should have been acquitted because it's an immoral thing to do."

David Gordon, MBI
"I agree with the decision because he wasn't acquitted on legal grounds. The jury was sympathetic to those women involved. His defence, I don't think was very sound, in legal terms, but I'm happy with the decision."

David Ratz, PPA II
"I'm very upset because I think life is pretty important and a baby is a beautiful thing. Only if the mother's life is in danger would such an operation be valid."
