Gentlemen:

Mr. Mackenzie King wishes me to express his regret that, owing to the pressure of many engagements during his recent stay in Washington, it was not possible for him to call at your studio, as requested in your communication of the 18th instant. On the occasion of some future visit to Washington, if it should still be your wish, Mr. King hopes to be able to acknowledge your courtesy by a personal call.

Yours very truly,

F. A. McGREGOR

Private Secretary.
