Malcolm has letters to the effects already enveloped and addressed to be sent out as soon as the announcement is made, but I do not think the announcement will come.
Jordan Reid was telling me that in a Stratford hotel Malcolm was boasting about his opinion. That was for the confirmation of cabinet members and their members to whom he was talking. Lyndale went up to him and said "By God, you'll need it". He is about the only one I know of who thinks he can win. We have a young Conservative Club here that will be horribly disappointed if he is not made a Minister with portfolio.

Yours truly
