

B. Tho' ye against the builders rail, a
 The Master's voice with joy we hail; b
 His words of life can never fail, c
 The gates of hell shall not prevail d
 Against believing Baptists. e

B. Those trees which Jesus came to plant, f
 He'll life and spirit to them grant, g
 And heavenly showers when they want, h
 Or with the scorching heat grow faint. i
 Let only such be baptized. k

B. Each one of faith will get a rest, l
 And be with faithful Abr'ham blest, m
 And by the heavenly host caressed, n
 Where at the marriage feast a guest,
 With wedding garments baptized. o

B. My friend, behold an olive wild p
 Grafted in by faith, and Abrah'm's child
 A member of the Devil stiled, q
 To make us humble, meek and mild. r
 Think on this Pedobaptist.

B. Faith has a firm foundation stone s
 The just shall live by faith alone; t
 Nor will the fathers do the son, u
 Or bring him to the great Three One. v
 Think on this Pedobaptist.

B. And cease your children to deceive, w
 Nor teach them longer to believe, x
