

X.

The funds, furniture and jewels of this Chapter shall be vested in the High Priest, King and Scribe, for the time being; but the funds shall be at the disposal of a majority of the members present at a regular meeting. If, however, the amount to be voted exceed forty dollars, the decision thereon, at the request of any two members, shall be postponed until another meeting of the Chapter, specially notified of said proposal, which meeting may be either regular or special.

XI.

At the regular Convocation in May of each year, a Committee of Audit and Finance, consisting of three members, shall be appointed by the Chapter:—It will be the duty of this Committee to inspect and audit at least annually, and whenever directed, the books, accounts, and vouchers of the Secretary and Treasurer, and report thereon in writing at the regular meeting in May of each year; also to see that all books, papers, funds, and other property in the hands of the retiring Secretary and Treasurer, are handed over to their successors.

XII.

The duties of the Secretary shall be to issue summonses to all the Companions for regular and emergent meetings of the Chapter, keep the minutes of its proceedings, collect and keep record of all dues, keep an account of all monies received and paid by him to the Treasurer, keep a register of all the members of the Chapter, transmit to the Grand Secretary the names of elected officers, and obtain the registration of and certificates from the Grand Chapter, for companions, upon their exaltation, or joining, for which duties he shall receive twenty dollars annually from this Chapter.

XIII.

The duties of the Treasurer shall be to receive all the monies of the Chapter from the hands of the Secretary, and to discharge all debts and demands against the Chapter which have been passed, and are so certified by
