

Rev. W. B. Boggs, on Missionary Work,—What it accomplishes?

Rev. W. H. Porter, on Missionary Work,—What it is, what are its methods of operation, and why we should engage in it?

Rev. E. W. Kelly, on Missionary Work,—The calls to it and incentives to persist in it.

On motion, brethren of this Convention visiting the Conventions of Ontario or Quebec are to be the delegates of this Convention to those bodies on obtaining from the Secretary the requisite credentials.

Adjourned, after prayer by Rev. Isa. Wallace.

NINTH SESSION.

WEDNESDAY, 30th August, 1876.

Convention reassembled at 10 o'clock, the President, A. Longley, Esq., M. P. P., in the Chair.

Prayer was offered by Rev. G. E. Day, M. D.

The Minutes of the last Session were read and approved.

On motion the Secretary, Brother J. March, was appointed auditor of the Treasurer's Accounts.

On motion the thanks of the Convention were cordially tendered to the Secretaries of Convention for their services.

The report of the Committee on the state of the Denomination (See p. 31) was read by Rev. J. M. Cramp, D.D., and on motion adopted.

In accordance with the recommendation contained in the report a Committee was appointed to consider and report on the granting of licenses to preach and ordaining of Ministers. (See p. 14).

Rev. T. H. Porter gave notice that at the next annual meeting of Convention, if his life were spared—and if not he committed it to the care of his Heavenly Father—he should move that the Second Article of the Constitution be amended so as to read as follows:

2. The object of the Convention shall be to maintain the Educational and Missionary interests of the body, and to advance the general interests of the denomination.
