PASSENGERS.
 To the Hampton, from Dundee.—Mr. F. White, lady and family.
 The following is an extract of a letter received this morning, by Messrs. Symes & Ross, from Capt. Barnes, of the bark Jo, from Liverpool:—
 "Trois Pistols, 31st May.
 "Gentlemen.—I am sorry to inform you that the bark Jo is on shore at this place, and fills with water every tide. We got on shore yesterday in thick fog, blowing hard, in running up to make Green Island. The rocks are right through her bottom, and I apprehend she will never be got off from this place. I shall leave this to-morrow, and bring the letters. In the mean time, I shall endeavour to save the cargo, if possible."
 The Bark Fanny has gone out of Mr. Black's Floating Dock, after getting new keel and other repairs. The Bark Devoreux has entered the dock, and the following vessels, among others, are waiting to undergo repairs:—Princess Mary of London, John of Bristol, and Royal Adelaide of London.
