Ottawa Witnesses the Opening of Parliament

OTTAWA, Nov. 22.-The third session of the tenth parliament of Canada was formally opened this afternon by Earl Grey. At three o'clock a salute was fired from Nepean Point, announcing the arrival of the governor general on Parliament Hill, accompanied by a Dragon escort. He was received by a guard from his own footguards. The senate chamber presented a brilliant social picture as he entered, the gallery being filled with interested spectators and the places on the floor being ocupied by senators and the wives and daughters of senators and members. The commons was summoned by the gentleman usher of the Black Rod. The governor opened the session with the following speech, delivered from
