But Other Dispatches Say There Are Signs of Peace.

LONDON, Sept. 22.—The correspondent of the Daily Telegraph says devastations by fire and sword continue, and the Bulgarian government has received from trustworthy sources a gruesome tale of massacre, tortures, indignities and burnings, in many cases the victims being slowly roasted alive.

LONDON, Sept. 23.—The Sofia correspondent of the Times affirms that a singular communication has been made to the Bulgarian government by Count Lamsdorf, the Russian foreign minister who observed that in the opinion of Count Von Buelow the German chancellor of Turkey has the right to send troops to Bulgaria to preserve order.

LONDON, Sept. 23.—The Balkan situation today presents a somewhat puzzling aspect. Turkey is showing signs of yielding to the Bulgarian demands, and it is evident from the daily meeting of the council of ministers that the Macedonian council of ministers is in progress with the object of avoiding war.

Apparently both Turkey and Bulgaria are anxious to repudiate having taken the initiative in the negotiations.
