BIG SHOW AT THE NICKEL

The manager of the Nickel Theatre has arranged another beautiful programme for this afternoon and evening.

There are two two-reel films again, which are certain to afford every satisfaction as they are entirely different to all seen here in the past.

The first is the "Gist of the Mill," a powerful dramatic sermon teeming with most exciting situations. The scenes are thrilling and it is a feature that will please the most critical.

"The Line-Up" is also in two parts. It is a beautiful story of college life showing a popular athlete who wins in a love affair. Harry Morey, Earle Williams and Dorothy Kelly are in the leading roles.

"The Count's Will" is a Pathe Play with Crane Wilbur in the lead. "With the aid of Phrenology" is a great Biograph comic.

As the programme is such an exceptionally good one, there will no doubt be a large attendance.

Gift For Coaker

Dear Mr. Coaker,—I am sending by this steamer a tub of bakeapples from the ladies in Cape Cove. I got the tub and the women soon filled it up. The only complaint they had was it was not large enough. I could not get anything larger suitable.

I hope they will be satisfactory, and won't be spoilt when you get them.

My wish is that God will grant you all the joys that Heaven can send. We paid the freight. Wishing you every success.

HESTER J. STOKES.

Cape Cove, B.B.

N.B.—Mrs. Humphries is also sending a tub which the women in her vicinity gave.—H.J.S.
