POLICE COURT IN AFTERNOON

Session on Friday To Clear Up a Little Row Among Foreigners.

It is very seldom that witnesses summoned for the complainant turn out to be good witnesses for the defence, but this happened in the case of Mike Madarovich vs. Geo. Jewes a foreman at the Pratt and Letchworth Co., which was tried before His Worship Magistrate Livingston yesterday afternoon.

The complainant in the case claimed in his evidence given a few days ago at a previous hearing of the case that he was roughly handled. A witness, Joe Campa, who was heard yesterday afternoon gave evidence of having seen complainant lying on the floor.

Jewes in giving his evidence stated that the complainant had been discharged in the morning with instructions to come back later for his pay owing to the cashier not being in the office at the time of the discharge.

The cashier did not get down until after the discharge had taken place. In the afternoon the complainant was found in a room. When asked what he wanted he said "pay". He also asked for a paper meaning an order for his money, which is not necessary at the factory in question. He did not get out and Mr. Jewes took him first by one arm but this did not bring enough force to bear upon the individual, so after he had kicked at some coles, Mr. Jewes took both his arms and put him out the door. It had been raining and the complainant's coat was wet. This was the reason Mr. Jewes gave for the complainant's little tumble.

The complainant's little tumble the slippery coat went down to meet the slippy ground, the result was that the weather man assisted by Mr. Jewes slipped one over on the complainant. He believed the complainant had a few drinks in him and this may have been so as he is called "Whiskey Mike". He started to come back with a piece of iron to do Mr. Jewes up but Mr. Hopper, an employee of the shop put up such a howl that he cut the comedy.

Mr. Hopper a witness for the complainant saw part of the affair. He confirmed the evidence of Mr. Jewes as to the way he handled the complainant.

Mr. James Limburg gave evidence as to the complainant asking for pay and for a paper. He also confirmed the evidence of Mr. Jewes.

Sergt. Wallace gave evidence to the effect that he saw the complainant when he came down to the police station to complain. He stated that he had a little joy water on board.

The case was dismissed. There were only three to face His Worship in court this morning and these were quickly disposed of. One drunk contributed twelve eighty-five—the offender being a billed man. The other two were allowed to go, as it was the first time. His Worship had had the pleasure of looking on their flushed countenances.

Clean Up

Residents of Mohawk Road Desire to Have Action Taken

The Courier was quite right in calling for a thorough enquiry by the authorities into the death of William Mattice, at the house of Rose Blanken, on Mohawk Road Friday morning. This comment was heard on all sides in the immediate vicinity where the death took place. One resident of the community remarked that an Englishman who died in a local hotel recently, and where he had received even a certain amount of attention before his death, had been the subject of an official enquiry. It was pointed out that the holding of this inquest was perfectly right. "In view of all the circumstances surrounding the death and published in the Courier, and in view of the unsavoury reputation of the house of Rose Blanken, it appears," said another resident, "that the authorities are not satisfying the public of that neighborhood who deserve to have things cleared up. Such would result if a thorough investigation were held."

Parkdale residents are demanding at any event, that action be taken to have a clean up.

Thomas Grant, gardener at Mohawk Institute, was emphatic this morning in demand for an inquest. "There is no telling," he said, "how that poor fellow died or what hour he went to the house." Mr. Grant was summoned by Constable Kerr to view the remains.

Neighbors report that Mrs. Blanken closed up her house last night and has not been seen since.

SMEATON TOWER WAS AIMED AT

Militant Suffragette Endeavored to Throw a Bomb That Way This Morning.

[Canadian Press Despatch] PLYMOUTH, Eng., April 19.—A militant suffragette "bomb troop" this morning attempted to blow up the famous Smeaton Tower on Plymouth Hoe, which is the original Eddystone lighthouse, built by John Smeaton in 1759-59, dismantled when it had become antiquated and re-erected on the Hoe as a historic relic.

As in many instances of recent date, the bomb employed by the militants failed to explode. It consisted of the usual cylindrical tin canister filled with explosives and with a fuse attached to the top.

The bomb was placed by the women within the entrance gate of the tower. The fuse had been lighted, but was apparently extinguished by the wind.

On the cylinder the women had painted in bold letters the words: "Votes for women. Death in ten minutes," while all around was scattered suffrage literature.

Obituary

The Late Mrs. Smith
There passed away at her late residence, 506 Colborne street, Mrs. Findlay Smith, widow of the late George Smith, who pre-deceased her some eighteen years ago.

The late Mrs. Smith was over eighty years of age. She was born in Aberdeen, Scotland, and came to Canada when only eight years of age. She had resided in Brantford for the past fifty-five years, during which time she made many true friends who will share with the family in their sad loss.

Mrs. Smith was an active member of the church, and was a worker for the temperance cause. Mrs. Smith was always a lover of beautiful flowers and shrubs. Her beautiful flower garden was admired by all.

The late Mrs. Smith leaves to mourn her loss two daughters, Mrs. James Heath and Mrs. (Dr.) Hart,

Your Furs are Safe in our Vaults!

Why send them out of town when they can be stored just as well in Brantford?

Furs are so highly prized by everyone, it follows that great care must be taken to protect them from the ravages of moths. It is a fact that more furs are ruined by these pests than by actual wear.

The cold, dry air system of storage is a positive safeguard against moths. Much work and worry can be avoided by simply telephoning us at 619, and we will call for your furs and other winter apparel. You place your own valuation on each article, and we are responsible to you for that amount in case of loss by fire or moth. Our charge for storage and insurance is 3 per cent. of the value—a moderate charge when it is remembered that we carefully dust each article, and hang them in a vault that is intensely cold.

Nothing is packed or folded. Everything is kept on hangers, so that the most delicate article will not become creased or mussed, and will carry no odor of moth preventatives.
