NOTICE

THE undersigned having sold out the goodwill of their plumbing, heating and metal working business to L. G. Ellis & Co. wish to thank their many former patrons in Kings and neighboring counties for their liberal patronage in the past, and to inform them that the business in these lines formerly carried on by us will henceforth be conducted by L. G. Ellis & Co. for whom we solicit a generous share of the above business. We still continue to carry a complete line of Stoves and Ranges, Tin and Enamelled Ware, and everything to be found in a first class kitchen furnishing store, which we will be glad at any time to show intending purchasers. Examine our Faultless Wood Hall Stoves and air-tight heaters before paying extravagant prices for coal.

SEPTEMBER WEDDINGS

PARKER—CHUTE.
On Wednesday at 12.30 o'clock, the marriage took place of Mr. S. Chipman Parker of Berwick, to Miss Elizabeth B. Chute, daughter of Mrs. J. W. Margeson. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. Williams at the residence of the bride. The parlors were beautifully decorated with a profusion of sweet peas and other flowers. Miss Lillie Webster was bridesmaid and Mr. A. H. Chesley groomsmen. The bride looked charming in her camel hair dress trimmed with green satin and hat to match. The bride carried a handsome bouquet of white roses.
After the ceremony lunch was partaken of, and even in that room garlands and streamers of sweet peas were suspended from the ceiling. The happy couple took the Blue-nose train amid showers of rice and many good wishes. They will visit Truro and different parts of Cape Breton and on their return will reside at Berwick.
Mrs. Parker was a general favorite here and will be greatly missed by her many friends.
The presents were numerous and costly testifying to the esteem in which the bride was held by her friends. The gift of the groom to the bride was a handsome seal-skin coat.

VANBLARCOM—McDOUGAL

The Rectory, Kentville, was the scene of an interesting event on Wednesday at 9.30 a. m. At that time Mr. Frederick S. VanBlarcom of this town formerly of Brighton Digby Co., was married to Miss Mary Margaret McDougal, eldest daughter of Mrs. McDougal, Rev. C. DeW. White officiated and only the immediate relatives were present. The happy couple drove to Wolfville and then took the Blue-nose on the way to St. John. After a visit there they will visit Mr. VanBlarcom's relatives in Digby Co., before returning to Kentville, where they will reside with the bride's mother.
The brides costume was a brown travelling dress with lace trimmings and hat to match. Miss Maude McDougal, sister of the bride was bridesmaid and Mr. Ben Van Blarcom groomsmen. The presents were numerous including several from fellow workmen of Mr. Van Blarcom in the D. A. R. Machine Shop.
