THIS CONFESSION

Shows That an Unfor upate Man was Hanged

For a Murder Committed by a Woman -She Killed her Mother.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Jan. 23 .- Information has reached here that Mrs. Van Horn, who recently died in the state of Washington, confessed on her death bed that she murdered her mother, Mrs. Thomas Egan, near this city, on Sept. 12, 1880 For this crime city, on Sept. 12, 1880 For this crime Thomas Egan, the woman's husband, was hanged, although to the last protesting his innocence. Mrs. Van Horn was his stepdaughter. Mrs. Egan was choked to death with a rope and her head was bruised with a wooden picket. The clothes Egan wore were found in the barn covered with blood, and this caused his conviction. The execution was bungled and he was dropped three times before death ensued. The first time the rope broke and the second it slipped. The physician at the hospital where Mrs. Van Horn died took down her confession and sent it to Egan's reatives here.
