TO OUR CUSTOMERS.

We have just put in, at great expense, WONDERFUL MACHINES, heated by steam, were only passing through the rollers once; the result—WORK IS EASIER, WILL NOT BREAK, and will last much longer than when ironed by the old method, heated by gas, which has to pass through the rollers eight times.

P.S.—We have also added a newly invented machine to iron the edges of

HOPE FOR EVERYBODY

THERE SEEMS TO BE NO CASE
SO BAD THAT ANTI-PILL CAN-NOT CURE IT. A STRONG
CLAIM. BUT WELL SUPPORT-ED.

Just recently a physician in Lincoln, Nebraska, has made a discovery which is exciting the interest and wonder of the medical profession all over the world.

Dr. Leonhardt began on the theory that the poisons sent through the system by the rotting and fermentation of undigested foods were the prime cause of nearly every disease.

He set to work to discover, if possible, a remedy that would stimulate and heal the mucous membrane lining of the stomach and bowels, till by their normal, healthy action, perfect digestion would be restored.

He succeeded, and his prescription he called Anti-Pill. The proof that his work was well done is found in the long list of remarkable cures made by Anti-Pill.

Anti-Pill is 50c. a bottle, at all

The Ancient and Electricity.

Although little was known of electricity until comparatively modern times, it has been understood since six or seven hundred B. C. that certain substances when rubbed show attraction and repulsion for various light materials. Among these is amber; so, in the latter part of the sixteenth century, when electricity was more definitely known, its name was taken from the Greek word for amber.

SLIGHT SPRAINS GROW WORSE

Unless promptly treated. The great strength of Nervine enables it to quickly cure all manner of sprains and strains. "I sprained my wrist," writes Leonard E. Milford, of Rockland, "while working in the mill, but had to lay off, it became so painful and swelled. I rubbed my wrist thoroughly with Nervine twice a day and put on a bandage. The pain soon went away and frequent rubbing with Nervine soon cured. Nervine is undoubtedly an excellent liniment and the best pain reliever I ever used." Nervine certainly is extra good. Price 25c.

His Way of Working Up.

"Yes; he began there as an office boy."

"And, I suppose, mastered every detail of the business, so that he could take charge of the great establishment."

"No, he married the senior partner's daughter."

WAKEFUL CHILDREN.

For a long time the two year old child of Mr. P. L. McPherson, 59 N.
Tenth St., Harrisburg, Pa., would sleep but two or three hours in the early part of the night, which made it very hard for her parents. Her mother concluded that the child had stomach trouble, and gave her half of one of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, which quieted her stomach and she slept the whole night through. Two boxes of these Tablets have effected a permanent cure and she is now well and strong. For sale by all druggists.

We Took the Hint.

Miss Caustique (12:10 a. m.)—What do you especially like for breakfast, Mr. Bore? Mr. Bore—Well, I—er—hardly know. Why? Miss Caustique—The cook will start to get breakfast in a little while, and I thought I'd tell her what you liked.

SPENT OVER $2,000 DOCTORING.

Mr. Joseph Pomerville, of Stillwater, Minn., after having spent over $2,000, with the best doctor for stomach trouble, without relief, was advised to try a box of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. He did so, and is a well man to-day. For sale by all druggists.

Traced.

The Prima Donna—Why don't you give the part to my daughter? She sings beautifully. She has inherited my voice. Manager Conn—That so?
I've often wondered what became of your voice.

Dear Sirs—I was for seven years a sufferer from bronchial trouble, and would be so hoarse at times that I could scarcely speak above a whisper. I got no relief from anything till I tried your MINARD'S HONEY BALM. Two bottles gave relief and six bottles made a complete cure. I would heartily recommend it to anyone suffering from throat or lung trouble.

A BRAWNY EVANGELIST.

He First Whipped a Bully and Then Brought Him to Church.

A Methodist minister tells the following story about the late Sam Rozel, the great Virginia evangelist, who in his day was one of the best known pulpit orators in the south:

"Sam Rozel was a very big man and had a wide reputation for physical strength. In his college days he came off the field of combat, usually a cir-cumscripted and secluded area of the campus, wearing the laurel of victory on many occasions, and after he became a preacher stories of his physical prowess were spread far and near.

"One day he went to a village to hold a protracted meeting. The village blacksmith, who was a very big man, and who was recognized, especially among the tavern habitués, as a pugilistic wonder, heard about the coming of Rozel, and the villagers did not fail to tell him all they had heard about the size of the parson's arm and the length of his legs, and of the convincing way he had of closing an argument with his fists.

"All this nettled the smith considerably, so when Rozel reached the town he sought him out and asked him to fight.

"Rozel, of course, said he did not want to fight, but the smith kept on insisting, and finally Rozel became angry and agreed to gratify the fellow.

"They fought. Rozel literally wiped up the ground with the big man. When he had pounded him until the poor, vanquished bully was gasping hard, Rozel picked him up and threw him over a fence.

"The blacksmith had not said a word since the affray began up to this point.
As he rolled over on the other side of the fence, however, he called out:

"Say, parson, kindly throw my horse over too. I'm going away."

"But Rozel followed the man to his home, and had him sitting on a front bench at the meeting that same night singing louder than any one else."

NAST'S SURPRISE.

Dramatic Climax in the Convention Which Nominated Grant.

In May, 1868, the Republican national convention came along. Nast went to Chicago to be present.

It was settled beforehand that General Grant was to be the Republican presidential candidate. The great soldier had maintained a calm and noble dignity through all the trying days of conflict between congress and Andrew Johnson and was now honored almost as much for his diplomacy as for his success at arms. Indeed the mantle of sweet renown left by Lincoln would seem to have been laid upon the shoulders of Grant, and he wore it with becoming grandeur and humility.

Realizing that the convention would name Grant as its choice, Nast prepared a little surprise for the event.
He painted upon a large curtain the White House entrance, with two pedestals, one on each side, bearing the words, "Republican Nominee, Chicago, May 20," and "Democratic Nominee, New York, July 4," respectively. On the Republican pedestal was seated the figure of Grant, while Columbia stood pointing to the empty place opposite.
Below were the words, "Match Him!"

This curtain, with a blank curtain before it, was suspended at the back of the convention stage. At the instant when General Grant was announced as the unanimous presidential choice of his party the blank curtain was lifted, and the great cartoon, "Match Him!" was suddenly exposed to full view.

The occurrence was so unexpected that the throng was silent for a moment, taking it in; then, realizing that it was a spectacular climax, the pictorial expression of a universal sentiment, the assembled multitude gave vent to an enthusiasm that turned the great hall into a pandemonium of exultation.—Albert Bigelow Paine in Essays.

A Valuable Scrapbook.

To devote a scrapbook to one subject makes it much more interesting and valuable, and when you begin to gather material on any one theme you will be surprised at the amount which will come to hand. Suppose you want to know all about some famous person, either in the public eye at present or some one of past times. From magazines and other sources can be collected articles, portraits, perhaps poems in relation to the subject, etc. When matter is clipped, the scrapbook maker may copy it neatly with a pen into a book. The educational value of such a book is something worth while, as well as the satisfaction of having gathered oneself so much information on a single subject.

Artemus Ward's Protector.

While in the show business in Pennsylvania Artemus Ward was put to sleep in an attic where the sash had been taken out for ventilation. In the night it turned cold. Artemus got up and was busy at the window. "What are you doing, Artemus?" his companion asked. "I'm so cold," he chattered.
"I was hanging up some of these hoopskirts. I thought they'd keep the coldest of the cold out."

His Experience.

"There are some songs that will never die," said the musical enthusiast.

"I guess that's right," answered Mr.
Cumrox. "My daughter sits down at the piano and tries to kill a few of 'em every evening. But it's no use."

Children soon learn that it is father who has the money and mother who has the generous disposition.—Atch-

THEY MADE THIS COUPLE HAPPYDodd's Kidney Pills doing Good Work around Port Arthur

Mr. Dick Souvey and Wife Both Had Kidney Troubles and the Great Canadian Kidney Remedy Cured
Them.

Port Arthur, Ont., Nov. 7.—(Special).—That Dodd's Kidney Pills cure the Kidney ills of men and women alike has been proved time and again in this neighborhood, but it is only occasionally they get a chance to do double work in the same house. This has happened in the case of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Souvey, a farmer, and his wife, living about seven miles from here. In an interview Mr. Souvey said:

"My wife and myself have used Dodd's Kidney Pills and have found them a big benefit to our health.
We had La Grippe two winters and were exposed to much frost and cold.
Our sleep was broken on account of urinary troubles and pain in the kidneys. We each took six boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills and now enjoy good health."

seeing Too Much of One Another.

"A long day spent in the society of the same people is nearly always trying," says a fashionable woman.
"While we are all very effusive, we don't really, as a rule, like each other very much or for very long. We get on all right with those of our acquaintance whom we meet at tea parties or when we dine out, but the majority bore us intolerably when we find ourselves in their company for eight or ten hours at a time."

HAVE YOU INDIGESTION

And conclude the course that the stomach is at fault. So it is, but there is a cause away back of the stomach that must be reached before the stomach can be made to do its work. The cause is nerve disturbance or nerve debility. First get the nerves in shape and then the stomach will be right almost. Ferrazone has accomplished this for thousands of people whose digestion was completely gone. Ferrazone is food for the nerves and works wonders in stomach trouble. Where digestion, appetite and assimilation are faulty just try Ferrazone. It cures thoroughly.

Why a Harpooner is Also a Taber.

Among the old New Bedford whaling families was that of the Tabers. In speaking of this fact to a representative of the family the other day, a man who is a member of a well known New Bedford family himself, said:

"In the old whaling days the har-pooners who sailed out of New Bedford were very often of your name. After time the name Taber came to be the generic title of any harpooner, whatever his name might be. Known to this day a famous harpooner is known as a Taber."

CONSUMPTION IS SCOURGING
CANADA.

Year by year the White Plague steadily gains headway, and whilst careless people let their colds run into catarrh, which in turn becomes consumption. Victims of catarrh needn't be discouraged, for fragrant, healing Catarrhazone permanently cures every type of catarrh. The soothing vapor of Catarrhazone immediately kills the germs that cause catarrh and prevents them from again entering your system. Relief will be quick, cure will be certain, absolute freedom from any trace of catarrh follows the use of Catarrhazone. It is a scientific remedy warranted to cure lung trouble, bronchitis and catarrh. Cure guaranteed with two months' treatment. Price $1.00; sample size 25c.

Twinkling Stars Mean Bad Weather.

I have constantly observed at sea that steadily burning stars indicated calm, fair weather, and the more they twinkled the worse the weather was likely to be. The forecast given by this variation in scintillation was almost invariably correct in the high latitudes, though it failed sometimes in the tropics.—Nature.

Ornel.

Gracy—Maud tells me that Ferdy kissed her hand last night. Now, what do you think of that? Edythe—Well, I suppose the poor man had to do something and couldn't go her face.

A TIMELY SUGGESTION.

This is the season of the year when the prudent and careful housewife replenishes her supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is certain to be needed before the winter is over, and results are much more prompt and satisfactory when it is kept at hand and given as soon as the cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system. In almost every instance a severe cold may be warded off by taking this remedy freely as soon as the first indication of the cold appears. There is no danger in giving it to children for it contains no harmful substance.
It is pleasant to take—both adults and children like it. Buy it and you will get the best. It always cures.
For sale by all druggists.

SNAKE RIVER VALLEY.

The largest irrigation enterprise in America is located in the rich Snake River valley of Idaho which has been reclaimed through man's handi-work alone. In this valley which is now comfortably settled, there remains 270,000 acres of land belonging to the state of Idaho which is under the Twin Falls irrigation canals and open to settlement. This land is among the richest in America as experiments have proved. Potatoes here yield 200 to 400 bushels to the acre with an average weight of 63 pounds per bushel. Other crops of alfalfa are raised each season in the Snake River Valley. The climate is superb and of great value as a tonic for mind and body. Homeseekers' low rates to the Snake River valley are in effect via Union Pacific, the only direct route. Where crops of alfalfa are
