"THE STORMY PETREL"

Sees Czar in the Interest of Peace and Harmony.

Czar Stayed on Kaiser's Yacht Till Early Morn—Official Statement Is That Nicholas and William Conferred as Brother Monarchs From 11 p.m. Till 1.30 a.m.—Komura Says Japan Desires Peace.

St. Petersburg, July 25.—The picturesque meeting of the German and Russian Emperors in the Finland gulf, according to private disclosures yesterday afternoon with a gala luncheon on board the German Imperial yacht Hohenzollern, after which Emperor William's yacht steamed seaward, escorted for a short distance by the Russian Imperial yacht, the Polar Star. Then Imperial salutes were exchanged, and the Polar Star put about and returned to Peterhof, where she arrived last night. A flotilla of torpedo boats, torpedo boat destroyers and small cruisers hovered about the Imperial yacht from the time they met until they parted.

Details of Meeting Secret.
Beyond the additional fact that Emperor William paid a visit to the Polar Star Sunday night, and that subsequently Emperor Nicholas went on board the Hohenzollern and remained until late afternoon, the German Emperor's cabin no further details of the meeting are yet available.

The meeting of the two monarchs naturally created intense interest in diplomatic circles. In some quarters there is a disposition to attach the deepest political significance to it, and all sorts of theories are advanced. But they are largely speculation.

Strengthens Peace.
It is officially announced that the visit was only a visit of courtesy, made by Emperor William to his brother monarch before leaving the Gulf of Bothnia, but under the circumstances the diplomats cannot believe that such a meeting was devoid of meaning to the world's political chess board.

No matter what the ultimate result may be, however, all the diplomats are agreed that the visit was a step towards peace, as Emperor William is known to be strongly of the opinion that Emperor Nicholas should conclude peace and get his house in order.

In another quarter it was suggested that the German Emperor may have asked Emperor Nicholas to support a German prince for the throne of Norway, King Oscar having announced that he would not permit a member of the House of Bernadotte to assume the sceptre, and the only other candidate being Prince Charles of Denmark, who is married to an English princess.

Official Statement.

The marshal of the court, Count Benckendorff, has sent the following from the Island of Bjork:

"At 10 o'clock in the evening of July 23, the German Imperial yacht Hohenzollern dropped anchor near the anchorage of the Russian Imperial yacht Polar Star. Emperor William, accompanied by Prince Albert of Schleswig-Holstein, and his suite, was rowed to the Polar Star. Emperor William was received at the head of the ladder by Emperor Nicholas and the Grand Duke Michael, and cordial greetings were exchanged. The German Emperor reviewed the guard of honor and the yacht's crew, and the two emperors and their suites were then taken to the saloon.

"At 11 o'clock at night, Emperor Nicholas and Grand Duke Michael accompanied Emperor William to the Hohenzollern, where they remained until 1.30 o'clock in the morning."

New Proposal More Liberal.

The proposals of the Government for a new assembly, as amended by the Committee of Ministers, and now submitted for the Emperor's consideration, differ essentially from the original scheme outlined by the commission, headed by Mr. Boulogne, Minister of the Interior. They are more liberal, and are free from vexatious complexities, placing the assembly, on a more independent footing, and empowering its president to report direct to the Emperor, who in the same way may respect its own officers, including its president, and discuss any matters of a legislative character, with greater freedom. Further, the commission of Ministers recommends that the assembly be authorized to examine all appointments to the different Ministries, and to question Ministers on affairs within its jurisdiction.

Japan Desires Peace.

Chicago, July 25.—Baron Komura arrived here yesterday. He authorized this statement:

"At New York we shall meet Minister Takahira, who was expected to have word from President Roosevelt, inviting us to call either at Oyster Bay or Washington. We desire peace, yet are not over anxious, nor are we over sanguine that the negotiations will be productive. A Japanese protectorate over Korea will open the way for Japanese immigration there and divert it from this country."

The Pennsylvania special took Baron Komura and party eastward.

Take Loans Instead of Indemnity.

Berlin, July 25.—The Lokai Anzeiger yesterday says: "Russia may propose to Japan to take over all her foreign loans. Her credit is in a bad way. Witte's interviews in Paris are connected with such a plan, and the visit of Herr Ernst von Mendelssohn, head of Russia's principal bankers in Berlin, to Chancellor von Buelow, is supposed to be on the same basis."

The Roughs Rule Town.

St. Petersburg, July 25.—Telegrams from Nizhni, Novgorod, say that the town was for five hours Sunday in the hands of thousands of roughs who murderously attacked every respectable person they met in the streets. Numbers of persons were killed or injured, the rioters breaking into houses in pursuit of their victims.

Quarrels and Suicides.

Monreal, July 25.—After having a quarrel with one of her boarders Sunday night Mrs. Loman, living at 76 Workman street, took a dose of paralytic and died a few minutes afterwards.

BALFOUR WON'T RESIGN

Makes Statement to a House Literally Packed.

Premier Says That Adverse Vote of Thursday Last Does Not Warrant Either Resignation or a Dissolution. Opposition and Irish Leaders Adopt Heated Tone in Reply. But They Abstained From Forcing a Division.

London, July 25.—The Government has no intention of resigning in consequence of Thursday's adverse vote. This was the gist of Premier Balfour's anticipated statement in the House of Commons yesterday afternoon. Although it had been generally recognized that such would be the decision of the Premier there was feverish eagerness on all sides to hear the exact terms of his statement. The House was literally packed. Every gallery available to the peers and the public was crowded and there had not been such an attendance of members during the life of the present Parliament.

Mr. Balfour, who was heartily cheered by his supporters on rising, somewhat tried the patience of his hearers by a long disquisition on how former administrations had ignored defeats similar to that of Thursday. He declared that such incidents had never been regarded as ground for resignation or dissolution and announced that the Government did not propose either to resign or dissolve Parliament because of Thursday's occurrence.

The Premier considered that it would be a grave evil if the tenure of Ministers was made dependent on such votes as that of Thursday. He hoped the practice would never prevail of allowing a Government united in itself and possessing the confidence of the majority of the House to abandon its post merely in consequence of such a vote.

Will Be Hard Fighting.

Mr. Balfour sat down without referring to the remaining business of the session, and Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, the Liberal leader, immediately asked for an opportunity to discuss the Premier's statement. The Opposition, he said, did not propose to proceed with Sir Edward Grey's proposed vote of censure, which obviously was superseded by the occurrence of Thursday. They wanted to discuss the conduct of the Government regarding the events of last week.

John Redmond, the leader of the Irish Nationalists, took a similar line, and the heated tone of both leaders indicated that the Government will have to face the most determined opposition during the balance of the session. Ultimately by arrangement with Mr. Balfour, the chief Government whip, Sir Alexander Acland Hood, formerly moved the adjournment, and Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman opened the debate with a sharp attack on the Government.

No Division.

Mr. Redmond followed, and in a few fervid phrases characterized the Premier's action as contemptible. The Opposition, he declared, ought to band together and make the continued life of this Government impossible. Speaking for the Nationalists, Mr. Redmond promised the Government that they would neither ask nor give quarter, but would fight day and night so as to make short work of "this Government of shreds and patches."

The Opposition for tactical reasons decided to abstain from a division, the debate in the House of Commons was unexpectedly ended and the Government motion for an adjournment was carried without a division.

It is estimated that had a division taken place the Government would have had a majority of from 90 to 100. Several Conservatives made their first appearance in the House this year.

Seawanhaka Cup Lifted.

Monreal, July 25.—The American challenger Manchester of the Manchester (Mass.) Yacht Club yesterday defeated the Canadian defender Alexander in the third and final race for the Seawanhaka Cup, and thus captured the trophy for the United States by three straight wins. Yesterday's race was a beat to windward and return, four miles, sailed three times over a total distance of twelve miles. Canada thus lost the cup she has held since 1884.

Turkish Troops Fight Rebels.

Hodeida, Yemen Province, Turkish Arabia, July 25.—The Turks are meeting with some success against the insurgents at Sanaa, the chief city of Yemen Province. Operations to recover possession of that city commenced on July 17 from three directions. Marshal Ahmed Fezi Pasha, at the head of the Albanian battalions, dislodged the rebels from a strong position near Menshka, inflicting severe losses on them.

Appeal Is Withdrawn.

Washington, July 25.—Mr. MacMaster, Canadian counsel for the United States Government in its case against Greene and Gaynor, has cabled the Department of Justice from London that the two men have withdrawn their petition for leave to appeal to the Privy Council at London; and that on Wednesday the Council will formally dismiss the appeal.

The two offices of memory are collection and distribution.
