Toy tinware of all kinds for the little folks, for a trifle at J. A. Thorp & Son's.

The King of Bavaria is building him a house which is to cost $10,000,000. And as he watches the workmen, even as he exclaims, "he is ever so humble there's no place like home."

"I shay, my friend, can you, (hic) tell me where the other side of the street is?"

"Certainly, just across the street; why do you ask?"

"Why (hic) because the same thing, and (hic) he said this was the other side of the street."

An old man named Wm. Rittinger died on Thursday night of small-pox at his home, a few miles from Millbank village. This is the third fatal case in the township within the past month.

The clergy of St. Patrick's Church, Montreal, are making an active war on dime novels and trashy literature of that kind. A quantity of the stuff found in the possession of their parishioners has been recently consigned to the flames.

A thaw has set in in England, and the snow and ice have nearly disappeared in London. Nearly all over England the weather is comparatively mild. The work of clearing away obstructions now on the Scotch railways is making good progress, and at many points traffic has resumed. There are no indications yet of a thaw in Scotland.

The inquest upon the body of Mr. Patton, of Montreal, has resulted in a verdict which, in effect, means that the deceased died of grief. The medical evidence showed that the deceased had taken morphine.

The Right Hon. Sir Wm. G. Hayter, formerly a well-known Liberal member of Parliament, and at one time Secretary of the Treasury, has been found drowned in a lake on his estate in Berkshire.

Reports from Manchester, Sheffield, and other places in the manufacturing districts show the distress still increased; but the thaw, if it continues, will enable masons and other outdoor labourers to resume work, though even then a vast amount of destitution will remain.

The Trustees of Queen's College, Kingston, are about to erect a very handsome and commodious building.

The Austrian journal indicates that there has been ground for fearing that an attempt to assassinate the Emperor was designed. The police are very active.

Hereafter the Sunday Temperance Club will be held in the new hall, adjoining Williamson's store, Macdonnell-st. A.S. Fraser, Secretary.

The St. Thomas Journal announces with regret the resignation of Mr. W. K. Muir, as General Manager of the Canada Southern railway, which will be shared by all who had the privilege of that gentleman's acquaintance.

T. J. Day will not hold over any of his stock of fancy goods. He is determined to place them all even at cost. A large lot of his goods has been bought at auction, and in some cases did not realize half the cost of importation, therefore the cost will be very low. He would ask those about purchasing New Year's gifts to come and price the goods. They will not be urged to buy. Our prices will be far below anything in town. At Day's books are.

The trade done at Day's bookstore during Xmas week has been very large. The crowds of customers could not all be waited on although three extra hands were engaged. The reason for this is plain enough. Day advertises liberally, and advertises what he has, and carries out what he says. There is nothing like taking large stock in printer's ink when you have the stock to back it up—a stock well bought and are satisfied with small profits.

R. W. Phipps never believed that the Chieftain "possessed a working knowledge of that great plain called the National Policy."

Rev. Alexander V. Millingen, M.A., formerly a Presbyterian missionary in Turkey, has been chosen assistant pastor of Knox Church, and successor in the ministry to Rev. Dr. Topp, when the latter retires.

"Did you do nothing to resuscitate the body?" was recently asked of a witness at a coroner's inquest. "Yes, sir; we searched the pockets," was the reply.

James Gearing, the absconding Toronto contractor, has been arrested.

There are four candidates for the Mayorship in Toronto.

Yesterday the bluish of health was upon her cheek, and the light of a happy spirit in her eye. To-day, as she sits apart, looking as yellow as saffron, and feeling as sullen as a mud turtle, he asks her tenderly what ails her, and she answers, sharply, "Mince pie, you idiot."

The high-level bridge, connecting the east and west sides of Cleveland was opened for traffic on Friday. Work upon this great bridge was commenced in August, 1874, and completed about the 1st of November, 1878. Its length is 3,200 feet, width, 60 feet, except at the pivot span, which is 46 feet wide. The cost was from two to two and a quarter millions of dollars.

GREAT SALE OF DRY - GOODS ! WHERE TO BUY.

WM. STEWART & Co's.,

And there inspect the various lots of New and Cheap Dry Goods, which on account of the general stagnation of trade, have been picked up from over-stocked wholesale houses and manufacturers at RUINOUS REDUCTIONS.
