THE CHARLOTTETOWN HERALD

DOAN'S

Women's

Bad With Worms.

Some time ago my little boy was of filty instruments, accompanied by very had with worms. I procured a select choir of singers from the a bottle of Dr. Low's Worm Syrup, Royal Opera, and a splendidly trained choir of boys, render some celeand am thankful to say it oured bim brated Mass of a great composer. quickly and completely. Its high altar is seldom, if ever, MRS C CARLTON.

IN THY LIKENESS. BY A. E. J.

McK llar P. O. Ont

Emblems of death around us lie. Sleep, and the darkness and the night as plants and fl wers, there are non The falling leaf, the fading light, o destroy this majestic simplicity, The simplest brook that murmurs by anless perhaps occasionslly at a pri-All speak decay and change and seem vate wedding. But its four corner to say, chapels are richly frescoed, and on "Passeth the fashion of this world Corpus Christi are turned into veriaway." And one more change awaits the just able gardens by the profose and The change to splendor out of dust : magnificent display of bouqueis, The glorious body from the vile, evergreens and blooming plants Which no decay can touch or sin de from the royal concervatories. The file. procession, with its attending troops, Thou great Unchangeable, who didst is the same as already described for create Man in Thine image, so wilt Thou Good Friday, save that the Princesses and court ladies wear their provide to his sterral That man, from sleep richest dresses, jewels, coronets and state. tiaras of diamonds, their extensive Wake in Thy likeness, blest and satisrains being borne by the powdered fied # and brilliantly attired pages. The * When I awoke after Thy likeness, venerable King and his entire court T shall be satisfied with it .- Ps. entourage walk immediately behind -Ave Maria. the Bressed Sucrament, the can py ver which is carried by four officers Grand for Diarthoea. selected from each of the four most

"I have been using Dr. Fowler" Extract of Wild Strawberry for the past six years and consider it a grand remedy for diarrhoea, and it is especially good for children cutting teeth.

MRS. HENRY C. THEDE, Por E'gin, Ont

(Written for the Catholic Standard and Times by Charles H. A. Esling.)

(Continued trom last week.) The procession enters the greater Hofburg chapel, which, as it can contain but a limited few, is, of course, closed to the multitudes, some of whom wait to see the Em. peror come out to review the depart ing troops, while many hasten to St. Stephen's and witness there, an hour Lent and Advent, whether the court average like the youngest of the be present or Lot, a grand orchestra en, and with no greater fatigue. I have not been sick, physically single day, but sick at heart often, alas, too often." Never, never, wil I forget the terrible work we have gone through, from the day we charged the enemy at Paardeberg adorned, save with its richly chaste until we drove him from his laager ilver candelabra, rucifix and mon on that memorable Monday night, strance throne, its superb lace fronor, rather, Tuesday morning. The tals or the rich piece of royal tapestry awful scenes are all vivid in my which forms a dark background to memory. Had I the necessary these. Extraneous decorations, such talent I could easily transfer them to canvas, rivalling Detaille at his are the most reliable remedy for any form of kidney complaint. They drive away pains and aches, make women healthy and Take the fording of the swolbest. len Modder River, or the will pains and aches, make women healthy and happy—able to enjoy life to the fullest. Mrs. C. H. Gillespie, 204 Britain Street, St. John, N.B., says: "I had severe kidney trouble for which I doctored with a number of the best physi-cians in St. John, but received little relief. Hearing of Doan's Kidney Pills, I began their use. Before taking them I could not stoop to the my shoes, and at times suffered such torture that I could not turn over in bed without assistance. Doan's Kidney Pills have rescued me from this terrible condi-tion, and removed every pain and ache." charge made on Sunday, February 13th, just as the shades of evening were deepening. What weird, soul stirting pictures they would make Then, the forlorn hope of turning the Boers laager in the depth of night, when our brave boys held,each other by the hand at arms length nor to lose each other, as they stole forward on the enemy's trenches.

letters of gold, they are a sober lot : But what of the scenes of the and I flatter myself I am a competent field after the battle. 'The expres judge. I have seen them in towns sions of some of the upturned faces, and villages, I have seen them on some besmeared with blood, baffl the ranches, I have seen them in all description. Here a poor fellow the varied phases of their peculiar would seem plunged in childlike life, bence, I submit, I am in a posislumber. Further on the distorted ion to judge.

Of the Mounted Police I need features of another would easily at est the indescribable agony he had not speak. Their reputation has indured, before the Almighty re long since been established beyond doubt. They are men fully qualified ieved him of his sufferings, whilst for their bard duties. As an exnow and then, the fierce yell seem ample, imagine yourself mounted on ed ready to break forth from the spirited borse and sent off a disopen-eyed and open-mouthed soldier tance of eighty miles where cattle as with clenched hands be fell, show thieves are at work. The mounted. through the heart. policeman starts off in the winter.

But what of the sad and hasty with the weather 50 below zero, as burial of our dear boys. They had cheerfully as he would go to a counmarched and fought, shoulder te try dance, an illustration I am sure shoulder, blade beside blade, por my old companions in Ridgetown were their rapks broken in death. and Howard will understand. In a Side by side they were tenderly, werk perhaps the policeman returns ovingly laid to sleep, in a foreign and reports to his tried and kind oil, their long last sleep. chief, Col. Herchmer. What has All this I have witnessed and he done ? You may depend on it in shared in. Why 1 know not, but every case he has done his duty. true it is that I was oftener found But the elements in many cases have in the firing line than was, some left their mark upon him-often a might say, necessary. I could not foot, an ear or a nose frezer. In pot help it. It was a species of fascina a few cases the Mounted Policeman tion that I could not coutrol, and bas met the fate of good Father many a poor fellow with his dying Groten--frozen to death in the disbreath thanked me for having for obsrge of his duty. Father Groten gotten self for him. was frozen to death in M . ch, 1891, The bullets flew thick and coming from W live Branch (a half-

It is simply wonderful the number western women who are coming forward to tell of the curative powers of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. Kidney Pills on, and removed every pain and sche."

war is !"

Hagyard's Yel ow Oil and in a short time the soreness was gone and I was soon able to walk again.

heart's broke, too." sleep without a grip or pain, curing

Biliousness, Constipation, Dyspepsia and Sick Headache and make you feel better in the morning.

later, that portion of the fun which was denied to them at the Hofburg. Around the grand square of St.

Stephen's an equal throng has by this time gathered, dominated by that marvelous heaven soaring spire, probably the most beautiful in the world, worthy to be imagined a pin nacle of heaven:

> Quae celsa de viventibus Saxis ad astra tolleris.

All the surrounding places traffic are closed, and the crowdr wait patiently uptil at 6 o'clock the clerical procession, consisting of the various religious guilds wib hanners, the municipal authorities, headed by the Mayor, in this instance the celebrated Dr. Luger; the clergy and canons of the Cathedral, Letters from the Seat of War. and, finally, the Cardinal Prince-Archbishop, bearing under a canopy

the Sacred Host, proceed around the square and enter the Cathedral. And Canadian Oatholic chaplains in South then what a scene of well nigh up. Africa will, we feel sure, be found earthly beauty follows, as mid chim ing bells, thundcrous music of organ, first is from Father O'Leary, chaporchestra and chant the Holy of lain of the first Canadian contingent. Holies is placed upon the richly and the second letter is from the decorated high altar, and the Matine chaplain of the second contingent. and Lauds of Easter Sunday, followed by the "Te Denm" and benediction, closes the ceremony of the James L. O'Leary, Post Office De-"Auserstehung" or mystical Resur | partment, Ottawa, and is as folrection of our Lord. The last rays lows:

of a glorious early spring sunset penetrate the superlatively rich win dows of the magnificent church, and mingling with the myriad candles ble march of one hundred milesnpon the altar and those suspended one that will rank among the greatin the great chandeliers of the nave est achievements in military history. give the effect in the darkening back-Our average for the last five days ground of twilight shadows of all the was twenty miles a day-the most interior walls of the Cathedral being of which was through a ravaged and incrustated with a mass of coruscat deserted country, where even water ing jewels, and seen through the was at a premium. To say that great open door at the end of the both men and animals dropped by nave, recall those lines of the well-known hymn of dedication: Hic margaritis emicant

Patentque cunctis ostia And with exultant heart and soul the spectator realizes the fulfilment of the prayer :

> Haec templa Rex, Coelestium, Imple benigno lumine. Huo, O rogatus adveni, Plebiaque vota suscipe

CORPUS CHRISTI AT DRESDEN. If I refer to the celebration Corpus Obristi, er Frobpleichpam fest, as the Germans call it, at the Saxon capital, instead of some place like Vienne, Munich or Rome, more favorable from their ultra Catholicity to a greater external display of ecclesiastical plendor, it is because the Saxon capita!, from its very ultra Protestantism, renders the celebra tion here the more remarkable and comparatively more splendid than in more favored localities. I donbt if it is even surpassed elsewhere, except in the single feature that it takes Lice inside the church instead of in the open thorough fares. The court church of Dresder, is indred : cold but architecturally a roth- and impretrive building, both interiorle and exteriorly, but what it lacks in color or decoration it supplies in the pomp and decorum of its ri us!, and

and a special collect for increase of local virtues, versicles, responses and saw many struck down around me. benedictions as before. almost within touch. One particu distinguished regiments of the different branches of the service, cavalry,

The order of the service, however,

again one peculiar to Germany.

The procession stops in turn at each of the four chapels. Proceeding to the first chapel the "Pange Lingua Gloriosi" is sung, followed in the der and lightning, with other vervicles and responses, the proper collect of St. Matthew, together with one for a copious barvest and proection against storms, and concluding with the Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, Proceeding to the second chapel, the bymn is "Sacris Solemnis juncta sint gaudis," followed by the beginning of the Gospel according to St. Mark, the invocation against war, famine and pestilence, the collect of St. Mark stillery, infantry.

At the third chapel the bymn Verbum supernum prodiens," the beginning of the Goapel according to St. Luke, collect of St. Luke and pecial collect, with the rest as before. At the fourth chapel the hymn "Aeterne R. x Altissime." the beginning of the Gospel accord sharing the tiny shelter with one of ing to St. John, collect of St. John the Black Watch. Finding that ard a long special collect against all there was not room for two, I decalamities; the rest as in the other cided on making a dash for a little chapels. Then, finally returning to nound some fifty yards forward. As 'he high altar, the "Te Deum" and raised myself on my bands and fifth benediction concludes the imknees, preparatory to a dash, I posing function. remember him calling out, 'My

The following letters from two most interesting to our readers. The still, had I remained a minute longer. Father Sinnett, Father O'Leary's letter is addressed to his brother,

BLOEMFONTEIN, MARCH 13. 1900. My Dear Brother,- everything around us, but we held our ground, and when day broke the We have just completed our terri-Boers hoisted the white flag and surrendered, the best tribute ever given to Canadian bravery. While veryone of the other regiments is ound in our praise, we can well afford to be proud of our brave boys. They are indeed worthy of yould allow us to push forward.

Behind an ant hill I lay prone, the wayside gives but a faint idea of the awful ordeal we paused through. You must naturally feel anxious to foliowe : know how I passed through it, Well, only fell out twice, and that for a few Lours only, thus doing my ngage in one of the most deadly begin taking it today. struggles that shall find its records on the pages of modern history. e no povices in war. A great the genuine Cowboys from the differ-Northwest Northwest. The Cowboys are commonly re. presented as young men who can drink bot-Scotch, kill a stranger, etc., with the same ease and indifference as they can catch and tie up a wild steer or broncho. Yet nothing is so truth—as the above. The truth is bey are gentlemen and rarely forget their glass of Scotch and soda and take it in public. There is no sham and quickest cure for weak threats, for coughs of every kind, and for all cases of de-bility was a state of the state of

2

Br. Wood's 1 t

They seem to respect no one, for I breed station) to Regine. I succeed. ed him as pastor at Regins. These men then, are good and lar incident may interest you. In grave fellows. Never in my travels have I been treated with greater re-Sunday's battle, when the enemy's fire was most furious, we had to take spect and affection than by the members of the N. W. M. P. If I shelter on the open as best we chanced to pass their way the morsel ould, until a lull in the firing of food would be divided with great big heart and real pleasure, and I was made to feel that there was no humbug about their goodness. The priests in their turn bave many occasions on their far west missions to do something for them, and what little we do for any one is transmitted to the whole force. How sweet it is to live like brothers ! Regarding Col. Herchmer, the God, sir, take care-God speed you. commander, he is a man now over Just then a volley was directed at sixty years of age. I need only say us, too late for me, but alas for him. he is an efficient efficer, and as kind Next morning at early dawn, I found as a father to the men, and as anxbim behind our friendly ant bill, just ious for their comfort. You may deas I had left him, but pierced through pend that the Colonel and his brave the heart and body, by the bullets men will give a good account of that perbaps had been intended for themselves, especially if left to their rade as scouts. Do you know that a feeling of On board we rise at 5.80, breakguilt came over me as I gazed on fast 7 to 8, then drill which contimy poor comrade of an hour, but nues nearly all day. Rifle shooting forms part of the drill. The Colonel this letter would never have been is ever on the watch to see each man's powers and incourages all in Another trying movement was their efforts.

when in early hours we were lying Feb. a7. We have reached our dealmost within touch of the laager. stination, and will soon be on land Oh, how that hellfire mowed down again. Farewell, and respect to all old friends.

J. C. S'NNETT." APRIL SHOWERS

> Wash away the filth and waste that have accumulated during winter. In like manner Hood's Sarsaparilla expels from the blood impurities that have been deposited during the set. son when there has been but little perspiration and perbaps constant confinement impure and vitlated air. Father Sinnett's letter is dated Capetown, S. A., Feb. 27th, and is It is a boon to tired mothers, housekeepers, teachers and others who spend their time indoors,

"We are not yet fighting-no, not even among ourselves. I fancy it would be a difficult task to bring together three hundred and twenty." spend their time indoors. It gives the blood richness and vitality, fitting it to nourish ard strengthen the nerves, muscles and all the great organs of the body. It "We are not yet fighting-no, two soldiers and seventy-seven sail ors as good natured, as orderly and It is the best medicine money can joyous as the brave lads who are buy for all diseases caused by impure o-night, as I write, on their way to or impoverished blood. You should

These men, some of them at least, Chest many of them took part in the north-west troubles of 1885; the others are

> You seem all choked up and stuffed up with the cold-find it hard to breathe Cough that rasps and tears you but little hlegm got up. Now's the time to take Dr. Wood's Norway

Pine Syrup before things get too see There is no remedy equal to it for me the breathing easy, loosening the ph

Cairns & McFadyen. June 8, 1898_v Kent Street, Charlottetown, North British and Mercantile Those remnants of print cotton at 8c, are the biggest bargains yet. INSURANCE COMPANY Note of Hand Books ASSETS - - SEVENTY MILLION DOLLARS.

Send in your orders at once. The strongest Fire Insurance Company in the world.

Check Books

Receipt Books

to the HERALD.

Address all communications the HERALD. This Company has done business on the Island for forty years, and is well known for prompt and liberal settlement of its losses. P. E. I. Agency, Charlottetown.

