A LIE.

(London Evening Standard.)

There is no weapon that can balk

No steel or proof can cast it harm. less by;

No stainless honor or unsullied trust Can foil the fiendish malice of a

The poison sinks insidious from its

The taint corroder, the black ab.

sorbs the light: And contradiction spreads a useless

To check the hateful triumph of its flight. We speak of Time's correction, and of Truth, Whose great tribunal waits to test and try;

We look for sweet oblivion-yet in

There are few things more deathless than a lie.

A Brave Coward.

'I don't know just how to explain it,' said Margaret West.

The young man stiffened, and slow smile, in which there was hint of grimness, curved the corners of his mouth. said quietly. 'You are disappointed steps, and hurried along the drive to 'I rather think I understand,' he in me. Isn't that it?'

She was silent for a moment. 'Yes, that is it,' she said at length; face hardened.

'Then you want me to enter that road race on Thursday?' he asked. 'Yes,' she said simply.

" And because I won't-

She turned to him quickly. 4 It isn't that I'm tremendously interested in the race,' she interrupted him, 'nor that I care a snap whether or not you win it. The point is-the point is-She paused; her brows drew together in a little frown; her fingers toyed nervously with a bit of wisteria she had broken from the creeper that covered the porch. 'I want you to be in it-to go over the course. That would be sufficient,' she finished.

'I see.' he said. 'You want me to disprove these stories that are going the rounds about my lack of nerve. Is that it?'

'Yes,' she said again. He drew himself up. His shoulders were squared. His attitude was that of a man summoning to his aid all his moral courage. 'The stories they have told you are quite correct,' he said somewhat huskily. "Ob,' she said, and in her voice there was something of pain, and something, too, of weariness, as if she had been expecting this very thing, and yet was unwilling, even in her preparedness, to hear it.

'They are perfectly right in what they say of me,' he went on calmly. "I have lost my nerve. There's back." nothing would tempt me to take up road racing again.'

'Nothing?' she questioned, "Nothing,' he repeated inexorably. I am not in the habit of offering an explanation nor any excuse for my fretted, and bade him burry to Tim position in the matter; but I would Conley. like you to know the circumstances. Would you care to listen to them?' If you choose to tell me,' she said dully. 'You remember that race three years ago over the Meadow Island course,' said he. 'Well, it was then nificent. Never a thought for himself nor me either, I'm convinced,' it happened. Stanley was with me. He and I had a good lead. We were tearing past the curve at the old church, letting the car go for all there was in her. As we swung that turn I saw a child just in front flow of blood as best you can, if you of us, not twenty feet away, it will, Miss West,' he commanded. seemed.

' How she got past the ropes that held the crowd back, I can't say but there she was right in the course. and not the ghost of a show, apparently, of escaping us. I don't know to this day what saved her. I only know there was a great gasping time. Anyway it was some sort of myself." a special Providence that saved her. my eyes.'

The girl saw a nervous tremor shake the big shoulders. Her eyes about you'-she began.

But the child wasn't hurt, you have lost my nerve. 'I couldn't go say ?' she asked.

seconds were enough for me. I was something that had to be done, couldn't stand them again. That is why I am out of the game-a cow- his grimy blood-stained forehead. ard, if you choose to put it that wav.' The girl said nothing. She sat simpleton!' looking out at the sparkling lake with troubled eyes.

At length Graham arose. I don't blame you in the least for thinking of me as you do,' said he, or for being disappointed. Good-

He slid from the rail, and went down the steps to the big car standin the drive. He had pulled on his gauntlets and was just climbing into the car, when around the corner of the boathouse same a wild-eyed dishevelled gardener.

'Mr. Graham, sir, be pented, will you be gettin' the doctor, from catarrh, especially in the morning. Great difficulty is experienced in clearing the head and throat.

All Stuffed Up

No wonder catarrh causes headache impairs the taste, smell and hearing pollutes the breath, deranges the stomach and affects the appetite.

To cure catarrh, treatment must be constitutional—alterative and tonic. "I was ill for four months with catarrh in the head and throat. Had a bad cough and raised blood. I had become discouraged when my husband bought a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla and persuaded me to try it. I advise all to take it. It has cured and built me up." Mrs. Hugh Rudolph, West Liscomb, N. S.

Hood's Sarsaparilla must get off.' The 'must' was em-Cures catarrh-it soothes and strengthens the mucous membrane and builds up the whole system.

quick? Tim Conley's fell from the stagin' on the stables where they're paintin' an' he's hurted bad, sir. 'Tie deed he'll he in ten minutes if the doctor's not fetched before that,

Hurry-for God's sake, hurry !' 'l'll have him here in five,' Graham called, and put on all speed. The car sprang forward like a thing alive, and went tearing down the drive in a great cloud of dust. Margaret, who had run to the edge of the veranda, saw him swing into the roadway beyond, and the drifting dust which tore high above the poplars told of the terrific pace he was setting. It was four minutes later, after a nervous pacing of the verandah, that she heard the whir of the approach. ing car again. She ran down the the roadway. Up the bill, with honking hore, came a dull black streak. She could see Graham and at something in her voice his bending low over the steering wheel. and the doctor, hatless and begrimed with dust, clinging desperately to the seat beside him. Then out of the cross-road just below where she stood, and directly in the path of the incoming cyclone, came a rattling farm wagon, driven by old Mrs. Clark, who was deaf as a post. The girl poyered her eyes and screamed. There was a wild yell, the sound of splintered wood, and a terrific grinding crash, When Margaret looked again the wagon alone was in the road; the automobile, turned on its side, lay against the shattered fence. In the field beyond lay two huddled figures. in that direction with all the speed she could summon. As she reached the scene of the accident, one of the two figures scrambled limply to his feet. The other painfully propped itself upon an elbow. Then she saw that the man who stood erect was the doctor. Even as she came running into the field she heard Graham's voice, rather faint, it is true but perfectly ' How badly are you hurt, doctor?'

it inquired. 'Only a bit,' was the response. A few bruises and a scratch or two.' 'Then get up to the Conley place as fast as you can.' But you?' the doctor demurred. 'I'm all right. Never mind me. I'll be fresh as a lark when you get Margaret ran to his side, and kneeling down began to wipe the blood from his face. Already the doctor was making a hurried examination, while Graham fumed and

'H'm !' said the doctor at length Pretty badly smashed up, but we're lucky, both of us, to get out of it as well as we did. Talk about your nerve! By Jove, the way he swung that car out of the way was mag-he ended. He pulled a roll of bandages from his case and handed them to the girl. 'Just do up his head and stop the I'll go up to Conley's and fix Tim up. Then I'll come back here and set Graham's fractures."

He went limping up the road, and the girl bent closer to Graham.

'It was splendid i' she cried, her eyes shining.

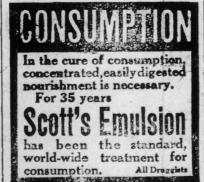

'That?' said Graham. 'Oh, that sigh from Stanley and a group from was nothing. I had to do that, you the crowd. I tried to swing out see. It was a question of killing the from her, but there was so little old lady or getting a bit bauged up

Her face was very close to his. We shot past her so close that I shut Something warm and moist struck his cheek

'Those wicked stories they told 'They're true,' he declared. 'I into a road rage to save my life. 'Not in the least. But those few This was different, you see. This Two warm lips were pressed to 'Had to be done?' she repeated meaningly. 'Ob, you delicious deary.'

The doctor, limping back a few noment's later, discreetly screened been together so close since father imself behind a tree.

'There are times when it is bette o wait before reducing fractures, he Lord be thanked that I could come meditated .- The Tablet.

How He Succeeded.

The train whistled out of the station and was getting under way, Suddenly an elderly woman started up with a hurried, bewildered manner, exclaiming: 'Was that Starkey? Starkey's my station! I

'This is Starkey,' ber seat comosnion answered. 'You'r too late, though.

A tall newsboy was carrying bis papers through the car. At sight of the distressed woman, he threw them down in a vacant seat, rushed forward and grabbed the conductor. train came quivering to a standstill. Some one hurried the woman off, though in her perplexity she tried ing herself beside him. 'I see you an interest, though some laughed as name?' people will when distress seems comical. Everybody breathed freer much amused. when the motherly figure walked onous call. Mrs. Pollard trudged back to Star- day? You saved a life l' key station. Over a quarter of a mile she had gone beyond it.

'What did possess me?' she as she stopped to get her bearings, so quick to help me when other folks

'Yes, now I know where I am,' laughed? Oh, I saw 'em!' she said. 'That's Melissa's house wrote she was so much better.

As she approached her daughter's good to me when I was a little chap. nome, a curious air of stillness struck and chilled her. No, there was no lp waiting to see. Hesitating to ring, she stole 'round to a side and haven't anybody now?' door which opened, as she knew, into the family sitting room. Softly she turned the knob and entered, Frank Henderson, the son-in-law, go. It's like an endless chain.

sitting dejectedly, while something approaching gladness crept into bis eyes. 'Melissa? What does it mean well-maybe she overdid, Yesterday she had a relapse -I telegraphed where you needn't be on the road, you; of course, you'd started first, Last night we doubted if she'd pull through till morning, much less till you could make the long journey.

mother's tenderness. 'I'm so glad you came,' he added, the newsboy.

fervently.

Mrs. Pollard was a master hand in sickness, and courage seldom forsook her. Then and there she made her resolve' First lifting her eyes as if beseeching heaven, she placed her hand firmly in Frank's trembling on her,' she announced cheerily, 'and please God, Him and mell pull ber through now, don't you worry, son Frank, it takes the heart out of you.' She set her lips resolutely to keep digan.

back her own tears. ' Just let me put on a white apron wouldn't look natural to her withou that, and I'll go up,' Don't startle her, mother.' Startle ber?' the tone showed that Mrs. Pollard needed no warning. Very quietly she walked into the sick room, and as quietly motioned the nurse to give up her chair by the Solicitors for Royal Bank of Canada Mis. Pollard seated berself and laid her warm palm on the thin hand which rested on the counterpane, softly stroking it. The invalid stopped her moan, and softly lifted her tired eyelids. There was reason and recognition in the glance. Mother,' she breathed with a sigh.

Yes, lovey, said the tender voice, Now, mother's going to give her baby this little bit of milk, and then haby's going to sleep. There there baby's going to sleep. There, there,

The nurse looked on amazed. Was t magic? This treatment was not down in the books.

'You're wife is going to live, the doctor told Frank Henderson that night, 'and it will be mother love that Will did it. If Mrs. Pollard badn't con in the nick of time I would't dar say she'd be alive this minute.' Pwo months later, when Melissa was quite recovered. Mrs. Pollard started for her eastern home. To all entreaties she answered, 'No, my child, I'm getting to be an old woman, and home is home. When you're both well, Almira needs me most. She basn't any busband, and we've died, we've sort o' grown 'together. You've got Frank and the boy. The now. Next year it'll be your turn to

To this arrangement no objection could be offered. She left on an early train, and there were few passengers at first. Pretty soon she caught sight of a familiar figure. It was the newsboy who help-

come to me

ed her off the train 'Sure, this is his beat,' she thought He had disposed of all papers possible, until a larger place should bring in more people, and on some western roads the stations are far apart. So he sat down near the front.

Mrs. Pollard was not a woman to hesitate. She went forward and tapped the boy on the arm. He sprang to his feet, lifting his cap. A In an instant the bell rang, and the quick light of recognition flashed over his face. 'Sit down.' Mrs. Pollard said, plac-

the wrong door, and had to be sent remember me. Yes, I'm the same back to avoid another train on the woman who was carried past Starkey side track. Everybody had taken station eight weeks ago. What's your "Spell away."

'John Markham,' he answered. 'John-that's a good, strong hon- MINARD'S LINIMENT Co., LIMITED. away, with a parting wave of the est name. I always did like plain at least I think not,' he ventured. something safer'n railroad ties!' It return train she wouldn't have held ever. took her ten minutes or so to reach out; the doctor said so. Now, I the station, and she puffed painfully want to know what made you spring

The lad hesitated. 'I think I'd 'round that corner. I supect she's bave done it for anybody. I hope I up and about by this time. Frank would. But you looked like my grandmother with that white streak inside your bonnet-she always wore, She brought me up. She was awful

'Dead five years ago.' He comcrepe on the front door; she couldn't pleted the sentence with a sad gravity. And you was an orphan of course

John Markham nodded. 'Well, well,' the old lady reflected how far the Lord makes goodness started from his chair where he was don't know the beginning, but go back's far as I do know, your grand-'Mother!' he said, in a whisper, mother was good to you, and that made you good to me, and that saved my child's life.

Suddenly a thought struck Mrs. Mrs, Pollard anxiously questioned. Pollard. She was nothing if not "Ob, mother,' the strong man al- practical, 'Maybe I can help you most sobbed, 'She was doing so forge the next link,' she considered. 'Wouldn't you like some business and would hope for a rise?' she asked. 'You bet I would-excuse me,' he laughed and blushed. She smiled charitably in return, but

She couldn't speak much, but every said no word more of his future. It time she did she moaned for mother. happened, however, that a long letter Doctor said you'd do her more good went promptly from his mother-in-law than medicine? The poor fellow to Frank Henderson, which letter was groaned anew. It had been hard to almost a command. A command see his young wife pining for a willingly obeyed, though; and later, a letter went from Mr. Henderson to

Now John Markham is clerk in Mr. Henderson's bookstore, with prospect of becoming junior partner, and this is the story of how he got his 'rise.'-Catholic Citizen.

Our store has gaineda reputation for reliable Grocerfingers. Her very touch was strength. ies. Our trade during 1909 'I've pulled Melissa through many has been very satisfactory. a disease before you ever set eyes We shall put forth every ef. fort during the present year artist." to give our customers the best possible service.-R. F. Mad-

Morson & Duffy

Barristers & Attorneys Brown's Block, Charlottetown, P.E.

MONEY TO LOAN.

260 Miles in 52 days.

Scholarships

To the Student making the Highest Marks during next term.

YOU win it?

An up-to-date modern business training with no waste time. Write to-day for new pro- Morbus, Cholers Infantum, Summer spectus, terms, etc.

Union Commercial College,

Was Troubled With His Liver For Four Years. Doctors Gave Him Up.

MILBURN'S LAXA-LIVER PILLS CURED HIM

Mr. Harry Graves, Junkins, Alta writes:—"I can not say enough in regard to your wonderful Milburn's Laxa-Lives Pills. For four years I was troubled with my Liver, and at times it would get so bad I could not move around. At last the doctors gave me up saying it was impossible for me to get cured.

My father got me four vials of your Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills, but I told him there was no use trying them and that it was only a waste of money, however I took them and to-day, six months later, I am a well man and weigh twenty-four pounds more than I did. I would advise all Liver sufferers to Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25 cents a vial, or 5 vials for $1.00, at all dealers, or will be mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto,

"You seem to have a lot of money." "Do I ?"

"Yes." "That's all right." "But I'd like to know one thing."

"Where'd you get it?" "Say, do you take me for a grafter?"

GENTLEMAN,-In June, 98, I had band. The newsboy gathered up names for boys-none of your high my hand and wrist bitten and badly the papers and renewed his monot. flalutin's for me. Well, John Mark- mangled by a vicious horse. I sufferham, do you know what you did that ed greatly for several days and the tooth cuts refused to heal until your 'You weren't in any danger, ma'am, agent gave me a bottle of MINARD'S LINIMENT, which I began using. 'Not my life, young man, but one The effect was magical; in five hours thought. 'The Lord helped me off worth more-my daughter's. She the pain had ceased and in two weeks the Lord and that boy. I do hope was at the last gasp. If I'd gone on the wounds had completely healed He'll keep me till I can walk on to the next station and waited for a and my hand and arm were as well as

Yours truly, A. E. ROY. Carriage Maker. St. Antoine, P. Q.

"How did you get through the ensus ordeal, Miss Backnumber?"

"Oh, very nicely," "Did you tell the man how old ou were?" "I certainly did."

"Did he fall dead with surprise or was he polite about it?" Minard's Liniment cures Diphtheria "Mr Speaker," said the insurgent ongressman "For what purpose do you arise?"

sked the speaker. "If I may judge the future by the past, for the purpose of sitting down

There is nothing harsh about Lax-Liver Pills. They cure Constipation, Dispensia, Sick Headache, and Bilious Spells without griping, purging or sickness. Price 25 cts.

"What kind of men do you like be best?"

"Ob, just any kind that the other irls happen to be crazy about !"

Muscular Rheumatism.

Mr H. Wilkinson, Stratford, Ont., says:-It affords me much pleasure to say that I experienced great relief from Muscular Rheumatism by using two boxes of Milburn's Rheumatic Pills. Price a box 50c.

"How do you like me any way?" asked the earnest but conservative yuth of the beautiful young woman. "Well, you make love like an

"That is a compliment. How do hey make love?" "With their eyes and not with their ocketbooks. Minard's Liniment cures

A PUBLIC WARNING

Distemper.

We wish to warn the public against being imposed on by unscrupulous dealers who substitute with cheap and worthless preparations designed to be imitations of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, the wonderful Bowel Complaint

Pharmaceutical concerns are flooding the market with these cheap and worthess preparations, some of which are even labelled "Extract of Wild Strawberry," in the hope that the public may be deceived and led to purchase them, thinking they are getting the genuine "Dr Fowler's."

Are you willing to risk your health perhaps even your life, to these no name, no reputation, likely dangerous, socalled Strawberry Extracts? Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry has a reputation extending over sixty-five years, therefore when you buy it you are not experimenting with a new and untried remedy. It eures Diarrhosa, Dysentery, Colie, Stomach Cramps, Sessickness, Cholera

Complaint, and Bowels. Ask for "Dr. Fowlers" and insist on getting what you ask for. Price 35 cents. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn WM. MORAN, Prin. Co., Limited, Toronto, Oat

Farmers and Gardeners should buy

CARTER'S Tested Seeds

We have been in the seed business for thirty years.

Maritime Provinces.

It is no side line with us. We are here buying or selling or making contracts for growing different varieties in different countries all the year round. We sell only such seeds as are best adapted to our soil and climate, and our long experience has gained for us this knowledge.

Our supplies of seeds are carefully tested for Germination and Purity by competent persons before sending out. Our supply of No. 1 Clover and Timothy. Wheat, Oats, Barley, Corn, Buckwheat, Turnip Seed, etc., etc., is procured from the most reliable sources. Many varieties are grown especially for us. We do the largest Seed Business in the

We do not sell cheap seed of inferior quality. "The Best and only the Best" is our Buy " Carter's Tested Seeds" and you are safe. Over one hundred and sixty reliable merchants sell them. Our prices are as low as seeds of equal high standard can be bought for in Canada.

CARTER & CO., Ltd.,

Seedsmen to the people of P. E. Island Queen Street, Charlottetown.

Largest Assortment. Lowest Prices.

WHOLESALE and RETAIL

For the Summer Trade a fine selection of

TEMPERANCE DRINKS

FRUIT, CONFECTIONERY, etc.

If you need anything in Pipes, Tobacco, Cigars or Cigarettes, we can supply you.

June 23, 1909-3m

DROP IN AND INSPECT. JAMES KELLY & CO. Intercolonial

labelled "Extract of Wild Strawberry," "Wild Strawberry Compound," etc., but they dare not use the name "Dr. Fowler," Spring & Summer Weather

Spring and Summer weather calls for prompt attention

Cleaning and Making of Clothing. We are still at the old stand.

Our work is reliable, and our prices please our customers.

PRINCE STREET, CHARLOTTETOWN

H. McMILLAN

Price $2.50 Amherst

> Boots! Are the Farmer's friends. Made from Solid Leather throughout, counters, insoles and heels. They stand up and stand the strain of hard wear through all kinds of mud.

slush and wet. Men's mherst Boots, $1.60 to $2.75 1.10 to 1.35

Mrs. Larter, Proprietress

Will now be conducted on

KENTSTREET Near Corner of Queen. Look out for the old sign,

King Edward Hotel, known everywhere for first class accommodation at reasonable

W. J. P. McMILLAN, M. D.,

PHYSICIAN & SURGEON. OFFICE AND RESIDENCE:

148 PRINCE STREET. CHARLOTTETOWN June 15, 1910-tf

A. A. McLean, K. C. & Bonald McKinnon

McLean & McKinnon

Barristers, Attorneys-at-Law.

Charlottetown, P. E. Island.

C. McLEOD, K. C. | W. B. BENTLEY STOCK McLEOD & BENTLEY

Barristers, Attorneys and Solicitors.

MONEY TO LOAN Offices-Bank of Nova Scotia Chambers.

MARITIME EXPRESS

-Railway

TRAIN BETWEEN

Halifax -AND-Montreal

> Meal Table d'hote Breakfast 75c. Luncheon 75c.

Dinner $1.00 Direct connection at Bonaventure Union Depot with Grand Trunk trains for the West.