At the City Hall.

The commission held a special meeting at the City Hall last night, Mr. W. G. Gosling occupying the chair and the others in attendance being:—Hons. John Harris and John Anderson, Messrs. Jackman, Bradshaw, McGrath, Withers, Morris, Ayre and McNamara.

The meeting was for the discussion of the question of finance. The Secretary tabled statements of receipts and expenditure to date, together with the estimated revenue and expenditure for the current year, as approved by the late council. The expenditure showed an increase of about $9,000 over that of last year, which was consequent upon road repairing, sanitation, special appraisement and erection and repairing of retaining walls. There was a shortage of $1,000 in the revenue, due to the shortage in vehicle taxes, collection of Crown rents, etc.

The Secretary also informed the Council that this deficit could be collected within a reasonable time. The arrears of taxes estimated for the year was $30,000 of which $17,958.62 has been collected to date. The estimated water rates for the year amounted to $54,800, and the collections to date are up to $28,853.51, which is about $2,000 over the corresponding period last year. Various other increases and decreases were submitted, but the revenue is expected to fully cover the estimated expenditure for the current year.

After the finance question had been discussed the problem of coping with the dust was dealt with, and many practical suggestions were offered. Mr. Harris moved that a hose with a sprinker attached be operated in the squares and streets intersecting Water Street to Lime Street, to lay the dust as the services of the regular sprinklers were inadequate. The motion was seconded by Hon. John Anderson, and carried.

Mr. Ayre in speaking to the motion, thought that the services of the firemen at these centres to work within a radius of 300 yards would help to solve the dust problem and suggested that the Inspector General be written in the matter.

Mr. Withers suggested that Water Street be thoroughly swept and washed twice a week as an experiment. The matter was deferred until the engineer is consulted.

Mr. Jackman thought that a full and complete report from the Engineer was necessary before any intelligent decision could be reached. On motion of Mr. McNamara, it was decided that the R. N. Co. be asked to send a representative to the next meeting of the board, at which a discussion of the contract for watering will be held.

The meeting adjourned at 10 p.m.

LONDON, To-day.—The Committee stage bill to amend the Irish Home Rule Bill, opened today in the House of Lords and will occupy three days. The first Unionist amendment to eliminate the clause providing for a vote to be taken in each county in Ulster on the question whether it should be excluded from the operation of the Home Rule Bill, was carried by 158 against 55.

The amendment moved by Lansdowne, providing for the total exclusion of Ulster without a time limit, was next adopted, 138 to 39. Lansdowne, referring to Marquis of Crewe's challenge, said that the Opposition would not guarantee that Ulster's exclusion would prevent civil war. Things had come to such a pass in Ireland that it was impossible for any one to guarantee what might happen there in the next few weeks or even days, but on the whole, he continued, we are inclined to believe that this arrangement is more liable than any other to provide relief from the present anxieties. Three important amendments were adopted yesterday; the first provided for the elimination of the clause of the Bill, requiring a vote shall be taken in each county of Ulster on the question whether it should be excluded from the operations of the Home Rule Bill; the second provided for the total exclusion of Ulster without the limit; the third which was accepted by the Government, places excluded Ulster under a Secretary of State instead of the Lord Lieutenant, in order to avoid any possibility of influence from Dublin. The amendment offered by Lord McDonnell, proposing a sort of Home Rule within Home Rule, by setting up a special Ulster Council of 52 members to take over the chief administrative work of the Province, was supported by the moderate, like Earl of Loche and Baron Courtney, but was rejected on the division by 196 to 20. The Daily Telegraph asserts on high authority, that the Government eventually will accept the Bill as amended by the Lords. It adds there will be no difficulty regarding the abolition of a time limit, but that the Redmondites will stoutly oppose the exclusion of the whole of Ulster. They will, however, the Telegraph declares, be out-voted on this point in the Commons by a combination of Unionists and Liberals.

OTTAWA, To-day.—Part of the Canadian Navy will put to sea at the end of the present month. The Government has made an offer to the British Admiralty to send the Rainbow up to Behring Sea to carry on the British share of the international patrol, following the sealing convention. The Admiralty accepted the offer.

FREEPORT, N.Y., To-day.—Mrs. Florence Conklin Carman, wife of Dr. Edwin Carman, was arrested and accused as the mysterious person who a week ago murdered Mrs. Louise Bailey, by firing a bullet through her heart, while she was standing in a physician's office.

WRONG BREAKFAST
Change Gave Rugged Health.

Many persons think that for strength, they must begin the day with a breakfast of meat and other heavy foods. This is a mistake as anyone can easily discover for himself.

A carpenter's experience may benefit others. He writes:
"I used to be a very heavy breakfast eater but finally indigestion caused me such distress, I became afraid to eat anything.
"My wife suggested a trial of Grape-Nuts and as I had to eat something or starve, I concluded to take her advice. She fixed me up a dish and I remarked at the time that the quality was all right, but the quantity was too small—I wanted a saucerful.
"But she said a small amount of Grape-Nuts went a long way and that I must eat it according to directions. So I started in with Grape-Nuts and cream, 2 soft boiled eggs and some crisp toast for breakfast.
"I cut out meats and a lot of other stuff I had been used to eating all my life and was gratified to see that I was getting better right along. I concluded I had struck the right thing and stuck to it. I had not only been eating improper food, but too much.
"I was working at the carpenter's trade at that time and thought that unless I had a hearty breakfast with plenty of meat, I would play out before dinner. But after a few days of my "new breakfast" I found I could do more work, felt better in every way, and now I am not bothered with indigestion."
