C. L. B.

The Brigade's various departments were all busy this week. On Monday night Bandmaster Morris and his musical combination were busy practicing some extra music for the Easter Monday Concert in the Methodist College Hall, and we hope the public won't forget to secure their tickets at Gray & Goodland's. On Tuesday the Battalion had its usual drill under the Regt. Sergt. Major and the Lieut. Col. Commanding and officers met in their mess room and had a social evening—holding a "Ping-Pong" tournament. The Colonel winning the championship. A pleasing feature was the presentation to Captain C. Waring Hayward from his Battalion officers on the eve of his departure for British Columbia. Capt. Hayward was one of the original officers and founders of the Brigade in Newfoundland some 28 years ago. He has been in the Canadian West and has been very successful in his line of work as a surveyor on the International Boundary Survey & Canadian Government Surveys. Capt. Hayward expressed his great satisfaction to see the Brigade comfortably housed in such a fine Armory and out of debt, owning a big brass band and carrying on Ambulance and Educational work. The Brigade's great help in the war and the gallant lads of the "first 600", however, has justified the Brigade's existence all these years. We wish Capt. Hayward "an revoir" and a speedy return to Newfoundland headquarters. Lieut. Reeves and Sergt. Major Dowling, M.M. were on hand last night lecturing on Ambulance work. Lieut.

NERVOUS, THIN, AILING WOMEN

Vinol Will Enrich Your Blood, Banish Nervousness, Make You Strong and Well

Physicians Recommend Vinol and Druggists Guarantee It

Pale, nervous, ailing women always tired, and often fussy, make homes unattractive and unhappy.

You can readily change that tired, dragged-out, listless feeling to one of buoyant health by building up your blood, nerve and muscle tissue with VINOL.

It makes red torpedoes and enriches the blood, quickens the circulation, creates a hearty appetite, promotes sound sleep, strengthens the nerves and imparts renewed vitality, energy and vim to every organ in the body. The step quickens, the eyes brighten and a clear, healthy complexion replaces that pale, sallow color.

If such women could only realize the change that VINOL will make in their appearance, by restoring strength and health, they would not rest until they started its use.

For all run-down, nervous, anaemic conditions, weak women, overworked men, feeble old people and delicate children, there is no remedy like VINOL. Your druggist will return your money if Vinol fails to benefit you.

Sudden Fortunes.

HAPPY MOMENTS IN THE LIVES OF MEN AND WOMEN WHO THOUGHT THEY WERE POOR.

A bargeman on the Medway, who is sixty-eight, and who has been a wielder of the long sweep all his life, has just come into an unexpected fortune of £70,000. He thinks of retiring now, and trying to live on the interest of his money, but so accustomed has he been to earning his bread by the sweat of his brow, that he feels a little anxious about the risk of throwing up his job. As he says: "You never can tell."

A young girl went to her work as a typist in an aeroplane company's office in New York the other morning, and found a letter awaiting her on her desk, from a firm of lawyers, telling that she is one of ten heirs to a fortune of 7,000,000 dollars. She had just taken her coat off to begin when she read her letter, and the manager and assistants were amazed to see a wild fandanglo down the room with one arm in and one arm out! When they heard the news, and the promise to give the whole staff a "regular bust-up," they joined her in the impromptu jig.

That Brother in Australia!

A shoemaker is advised as a rule to "stick to his last," but a certain plover of the cobbler's wax, who lives down Portsmouth way, has made up his mind to the fact that he has used his last for the last time. The trouble is that his brother died lately and left him something in the neighborhood of a hundred thousand pounds—not pence! It seems, he had, like the man in the story, gone out to Australia, years and donkeys' years ago, and hardly ever been heard of till he died and left all his wealth to his brother.

There was almost a had accident a few weeks ago, when a house-painter nearly fell off his ladder with surprise on hearing that an uncle in New Zealand had left him £16,000. The fact is, that years ago on his sheep-run, where he had six or seven thousand head. They had some misunderstanding, and parted, and had never corresponded since. The painter thinks the old man thought better of the matter on his death-bed, and concluding his nephew was right, made reparation in the best way he could by leaving him a nice little pile. It was the house-painter's wife who brought the news. The letter had arrived by mid-day post, and, like an inquisitive little wife, she had opened it and then raced off to tell John the glad tidings.

His Luck Held Good.
