

the Voters in the forthcoming Election

That every candidate offering for the election has for his platform a cleaner and better city but say where they will get the money to make the city better. Now I say Ladies and Gentlemen, during this week I will tell you how money can be had without asking taxes on the citizens. My scheme is an insurance company which would be a great profit to the company. Judging from the fact that foreign companies operating in St. John's have been successful in making a profit, this is what I would suggest. I have on the Market bonds for the sum of say two hundred thousand dollars paying an interest of 6% and running in 40 years. I am sure every Newfoundlander would place his fire insurance with such a company and I am sure that every insurance agent will see the advantage of co-operating with the St. John's Insurance Company and will advise them when they know it will pay St. John's and keep 600 thousand dollars in Newfoundland which now being paid into foreign companies. Just think another five hundred thousand dollars kept in Newfoundland and spent in Newfoundland. This is one of my four ways to get money for city improvements. I am sure you will see for a better insurance agent. I will tell you more with a local insurance company. I am sure you will. So if you want a valuable company organized, vote for T. E. COLLETT, The Young Candidate.

T. E. COLLETT,
The Young Candidate.

all the Voters in the City of St. John's.

adies and Gentlemen:

In offering myself for Municipal Election for the first time, I feel that it is only right that I should state my qualifications for such a post. I am a fully trained and qualified Master of Architecture and Art and for more than twenty years have been teaching or practising these professions. I have been teaching working in this City for twelve years. For eight years I have fought successive Councils for what is the absolute right every citizen: Water and Sewerage and the right to live in a healthy and healthy surroundings.

In my business I have seen hardworking men denied the right to build, met hundreds who are unjustly taxed, have seen the City protected to the detriment of their less fortunate fellow-citizens. Women and Children are forced to live in surroundings fit for human habitation, just to protect a few unfeeling landlords. The Charter is good in parts, rotten in others. There is a lack of protection for the taxpayers for they only know just where the responsibility. I believe in direct responsibility of the Council for the City for such matters as Housing and Sanitation, Rates and Assessments, etc., you would then know to approach if you have any grievance.

The City is crippled financially by not getting its per capita share of the road grants; one hundred thousand dollars annually paid to the Government in interest for a loan made the City for the fire; this should have been wiped off years ago. If all rates and taxes were fairly collected and the finances were economically handled, this city would be a different place in ten years.

There are many other ways of raising money for Municipal purposes, but you must have representatives who are prepared to devote their brains and energies to planning these schemes; I am sure you could have a lottery; other cities have been successful by this means. You are all sports and money must be had.

It is time women and children stopped their pilgrimage to the water tank or the hopper, and that garbage should not be about for hours to be the sport of all stray dogs, to say nothing of the wind. It is time that the people responsible for collection of refuse and street sweepings should be prevented from taking pot shots at their uncovered carts and missing it.

You want representatives in the Council who are qualified to look after these matters and who will fight until they are defeated. You want representatives who can and will help the officials, and who can check up and see that what the officials do is right. I believe I can help in these matters, and that is why I ask for your vote and support. WILL YOU GIVE ME YOUR VOTE?

Yours faithfully,

JAMES MURDOCH.

A Progressive Firm

During the past few years many changes have taken place in the commercial life of our city, and the passing of many old landmarks has been the occasion of keen regret; but it must be admitted by even the most casual observer that the more progressive firms are creating improvements that are a source of pleasure and gratification, not alone to the owners but to the general public as well, for all these improvements reflect upon the beauty and value of our city as a whole.

In this respect we might mention The Broadway House of Fashion as one of the outstanding features in local affairs. This store, although comparatively young, being just on the eve of its fourth anniversary, has beautified a locality that was formerly much behind the times. The newest development of the Broadway is the creation of an up-to-date bargain basement, such as every large American city can boast of. This basement has just been completed; it covers an area of 35 x 48 feet, is brilliantly illuminated by electricity equal to 5,000 candles, whilst an atmosphere of cleanliness prevails which the most fastidious person could not fail to appreciate.

Mr. A. Cohen, the general proprietor, is now here on a visit from New York, and the new development is due in no small measure to his progressive policy and gift of organization. His nephew, Mr. Harry Cohen, is general manager, whilst Miss A. Sparkes as head of the ladies' department and Mr. G. W. Rabbits as sales manager, together with a large and efficient staff of assistants, will continue to serve the public with the same friendly courtesy as heretofore.

"Cappy Ricks"
Season's Best Play

Peter B. Kyne's Famous Characters
Appear in Spirited Play by Balfour Company.

The characters made famous in the "Cappy Ricks" stories were bound to find their way on to the stage, and hence the Balfour Stock Co.'s presentation at the Casino last night. As Matt Peasley, a sailorman from New England, who drifts into San Francisco and gets up against the redoubtable Ricks, Charles D. Hager lends the play the physique and personality in the impersonation of a red-blooded young chap who is fifty-fifty on brawn and brains and knows how to win a true woman as well as enforce his orders when he becomes the captain of a ship.

Loretta Nicholson makes Florence Ricks a real girl, her mannerisms and charm greatly enhance the beauty of the role. J. E. Balfour is admirable as "Cappy Ricks." The strong-willed, quick tempered but kind hearted old ship owner as presented by Mr. Balfour is a great character. Billy Phillips throws his usual bit of wholesomeness and original comedy into his role. Marie Fischer is particularly good as confidential clerk to "Cappy Ricks." W. W. Hankins as Skinner fits the part to perfection. Lillian Hampton is all at home in the character which she so faithfully portrays. The remainder of the cast do excellent work.

The story has plenty of clever twists and turns, and the dramatic scenes are frequently offset by a good brand of humor.

The settings used in this bill are magnificent and the play is true to life in atmosphere and color.

Last night's vaudeville can easily be described as the best yet. Billy Phillips in monologue nearly brought down the house, as also did W. W. Hankins in his song and recitation. Jack McKenna's solos were well received. Valmore Balfour did a number entitled "So This is Venice" and received a big ovation.

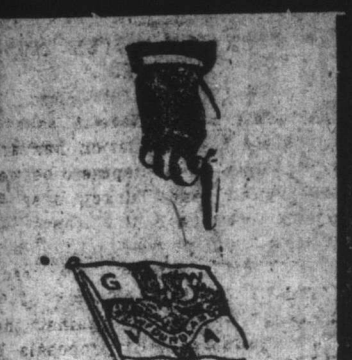

The above entertainment will be repeated to-night and to-morrow afternoon as a matinee and at night. Book reservations now.

The final bill will be "Is Marriage a Failure?" Watch for this play on Thursday.

Progress and Cost of National Housing

From July 8 to September 9 about 30,000 houses for the working-classes have been authorised under the existing Acts; 14,000 under the 1923 Act, and 16,000 under the Act of 1924. The October issue of Garden Cities and Town Planning, from which these figures are taken, reports a grand total of houses completed under all categories of 441,978. The issue also shows complete tables given from the beginning of the housing operations showing the remarkable rise and fall of the cost of the parlour and non-parlour houses. The year 1919 beginning with about £260 for the non-parlour house, the cost rose during the next year to nearly £300. A steady descent took place until the end of 1922, when the figure of £331 was the cost of the non-parlour house. Since then, as the tables show, the cost has slowly risen to the figure now reported as for August, £456.

More Fun Than "Charley's Aunt"

SYD CHAPLIN HAS NEW COMEDY
HIT IN "MAN ON THE BOX"

The Nickel Theatre will feature a Warner Bros. Classic of the Screen when "The Man on the Box," starring Syd Chaplin, begins an engagement next week with one of the most remarkable casts of the season.

The picture is said to be even funnier than "Charley's Aunt," Syd's last production and one of the biggest box-office hits ever screened. In one sequence Syd impersonates a flirtatious maid, and with his handsome features disguised with wig and make-up, was quite an attractive figure on the Warner lot during the making of the picture.

It is said that Bill Montana, seeing this young lady from the distance, asked for an introduction to Syd Chaplin. At any rate, the photograph is claimed by reviewers in other cities to be a complete "knockout."

"The Man on the Box" is an adaptation of the celebrated novel and play from the pen of Harold McGrath. On the stage, Chaplin's role was played by Henry B. Dwyer. The story concerns the romantically amusing adventures of a Bob Warburton, young, wealthy and charming, who hires out as a coachman.

Charles "Chuck" Reisner not only directed the production but appears in the supporting cast that includes David Butler, Alice and Kathleen Calhoun.

Wedding Bells

NASH-DORRIN.

A quiet but very pretty wedding was solemnized at the Sacred Heart Church, St. Bride's, Nash, on November 22nd, when Miss Bridget, Nash, of Branch was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Michael Dobbin of Regina. The Very Rev. Francis J. D. Ryan, P.P., officiated. The young bride looked pretty in a suit of pale blue satin with hat to match and carried a prayer book. She was attended by her sister, Miss Lena, and Miss Mary Quigley, cousin of the groom, both of whom looked charming in suits of blue silk-crepe de chaux with hats to match. The groom was ably supported by his brother Stan, and John, brother of the bride. After the ceremony the party was entertained at Mrs. Jas. E. Conway's, where a dainty luncheon was served, after which they wended their way to Branch, where a sumptuous repast was partaken of and where some seventy guests were entertained at the home of the bride's parents. On Monday they took their departure for Regina, their future home, where a supper was held at the home of the groom's parents and dancing was indulged in till the wee sma' hours. The many and valuable presents of which they were the recipients proved the esteem in which the young couple are held.

MEADUS-SEAWARD.

A very pretty wedding took place at St. Michael's Church on Nov. 28th when Albert Meadus was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Rosemond Seaward, the Rev. Nichols officiating. The bride looked charming in a navy blue costume, with hat to match, while Miss Laura Meadus, sister of the groom, acted as bridesmaid; she was attired in blue silk with hat to match and carried a bunch of orange blossoms. After the ceremony the happy couple motored to the home of the groom. Southside, where a wedding supper was served and the usual toasts duly honored. The bride received many beautiful and costly presents, including a cheque from her father and a white gold wrist watch from the groom. We wish Mr. and Mrs. Meadus many years of wedded bliss.

A GUEST.
