"Did any one see you enter this house?" exclaimed a tax-district collector as a tax-collector came in with his rate-bill. "Not that I know of," stammered the surprised collector. "Then," said the citizen, seizing an iron poker and rushing upon the intruder, "no one shall ever see you leave!" the tax-collector never knew whether anybody saw him leave or not; but he remembers with thankfulness that he succeeded in leaving.

SHROVE TUESDAY—The day before Ash Wednesday is denominated Shrove Tuesday, from the Anglo-Saxon word shrian, "to confess," signifies the time of confessing sins; for which purpose this day was anciently set apart by the Church of Rome as a preparation for the austerities of Lent. This season was likewise called Fast-mass, by which title it is yet designated in the North of England. In the Reformed Church the practice of shirring or confession at shrovetide is discontinued. After the people had made confession, they were permitted to indulge in festive amusements (such as football, cock fighting, bull-baiting, &c.) although not allowed to partake of anything beyond the usual substitutes for flesh; hence also the custom yet preserved of eating pancakes and fritters at shrovetide.

"Life's path is rough," the old man said, "I'm weary—I would that I were dead." I asked what ailed him, and he feebly sighed, in humbling accents he to me replied, "It's not that I am feeble, old, feeble, or a tight boot, and an infernal CORN."

Note.—Those who are similarly afflicted will please call at E. Harvey & Co's and get a box of Briggs' Curative, and in a jiffy his or her Corns, with all its torments, will disappear. For sale by all druggists. C. H. Wright & Co., agent for British possessions. The summer is gone, and winter is past. Jolly old winter has come in at last. The snow-flakes are falling quick thro' the air, Cock fighting, bull-baiting, &c., although not allowed to partake of anything beyond the usual substitutes for flesh; hence also the custom yet preserved of eating pancakes and fritters at shrovetide.

PERUVIAN SYRUP.
A protected solution of the extract of Iron, supports the blood with its Element, Iron, giving strength, vigor and new life to the whole system.
It is the thousands who are suffering from ANEMIA, DEBILITY, FEMALE WEAKNESSES, &c.
who will not only astonish themselves when they see their friends, but also their friends, who, instead of being weak, pale, and miserable, they would be cheerful, vigorous and active.
A distinguished doctor writes to a friend of ours:
"I have tried the Peruvian Syrup, and the result is such as your prediction. It has made a New Man of me, infused into my system new vigor and energy. I am no longer tremulous and debilitated, as when you last saw me, but stronger, heartier, and with larger capacity for labor, mental and physical, than at any time during the last five years. Thousands have been changed by the use of this remedy from weak, suffering creatures, to strong, healthy, and happy men and women, and invalids cannot reasonably hesitate to give it a trial."
The genuine has "Peruvian Syrup" blowing the glass. A 25 page pamphlet will be sent free. J. P. DINSMORE, Proprietor, No. 26, DUNDAS ST. N. E., New York. Sole Agents, Northrup & Lyman, General Agents, Newcastle, Ont.
