Attempts Will Be Made to Reduce British Superiority By Torpedoes.

[Special Cable to The Advertiser.] IBy Archibald Hurd, Naval Expert for the London Daily Telegraph.]

London, Aug. 24 .- The Austro-Hungarian battleship Zrinyi was one of the wonder warships of the world. If she was famous for one thing far more than another, as her builders proclaimed, it was for the adequacy of her armor protection against shell fire. Now, at the second shell fired by a ship of the French fleet, which penetrated her magazine, this good ship has gone to the bottom, presumably her crew of 816 officers and men The message gives no news of these What are a few hundred, more or less, when a war is in progress in which about 15,000,0000 men are engaged, and we shall be receiving from a single strategical field casualty lists ning into the tens of thousands?

COMPLETE ROUT OF FRENCH ALONG MEUSE IS CLAIMED BY GERMANY

(Canadian Press.)

Washington, August 24.—2:45 p.m.—The German embassy today received the following message from the foreign office in Berlin: "The army of the German crown prince has won a decisive victory northwest of Biedenhosen over five French army corps. The retreat of the southern French wing on Verdun has been cut off. The French troops were repulsed across the River Meuse in complete rout. The crown prince's army, giving chase, took many prisoners and it is declared the French troops are no longer able to face the terrific fire of the German infantry."

Ottawa, Aug. 24.-Gifts of horses will e glady accepted for the overseas expeditionary force. Col. Morrison, director of aritllery, this morning remarked that a good many towns have expressed a desire to give some form of aid, but sould not put up a hundred-thousanddollar machine gun battery or anything so costly. He said that any town or village which offered a gift of horses would have its offer promptly accepted. Any number from ten to a hundred or more will be taken. "In war time you cannot have many horses," said Col. Morrison.
