stables McMillan and Donaldson, who recently came down from Hudson's Bay, have volunteered to return by the overland route to Fort Churchill and northward over the ice to Fullerton, on the west of Hudson's Bay. They will leave in December, to be followed later by Major Moodie.

WORRIED TO DEATH. Peoria, Ill., Oct. 14.—Nervous prostration caused by worry of the Douglas scandal and other disclosures compromising his bank, and fear of disastrous ruin, resulted in the sudden death last night of Nelson Burnham, a stockholder in the Peoria National Bank. He was 70 years old.

AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT. New York, Oct. 14.—Miss Vic Bruner and Miss Bessie Lloyd, believed to be residents of Syracuse, were injured so severely this morning that there is little chance of recovery. The automobile in which they were riding, plunged through an iron fence and into the tunnel in Park avenue and 53rd street.

FATHER AND CHILD BURNED. Chicago, Oct. 14.—The charred corpses of Joseph H. Brown, 27 years old, and his seven months old child Anna, were found in a closet beneath a staircase in a three-story tenement in Jefferson street today, after the fireman had extinguished the fire, which is thought to have been of incendiary origin. During the fire a number of panic-stricken occupants of the house leaped from the windows. The firemen incline to the belief that the supposed incendiary was Martin, and that his object was suicide. He had quarreled with his wife.

Carnegie's Hero Fund

Committee Makes Public Result of Its Investigation of Many Cases.

Honor Roll Long One Chronically Many Deeds of Bravery.

Ship Laborer of Quebec Given Silver Medal for Most Daring Rescue.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 16.—The Carnegie hero fund commission tonight made public the result of its investigation of cases which were supposed to entitle the participants to recognition. Ten awards were made, as follows:

Daniel Davis, a coal miner, aged 23, of Sherodville, Ohio, lost his life in the rescue of his brother-in-law, William Munroe. His wife was awarded a silver medal and $1,000. On July 11, 1904, William Munroe, having charge of the steam and electric pumps of the Somers Mining company in the Sherodville, Ohio, section, was overcome by gas in the old slope of the mine, and Davis attempted to rescue him. Munroe was saved, but Davis died on being brought to the outside.

Walsh Plummer, aged 15, on May 9, 1904, on Lynch's river, near Lamar, S. C., saved a companion, John H. Gibson, from drowning by jumping into the water and supporting him until he was rescued.

Charlotte Dekanster, aged 17, a student of the Lawrence Normal school, was drowned in the river and rescued by Miss Maud Titus, aged 16, a student of Newark, N. J., who was awarded a silver medal for saving from drowning Miss Laura V. Bellinger, aged 27, a music teacher of East Orange, N. J., on July 10, 1904.

When returning from a cruise on Lake Ontario, the Grand Duke Cyril was in love with the Russian princess, Marie of Russia, who was the daughter of the Emperor. The Grand Duke was in love with her since she was a child. The obstacle to their marriage was the Emperor, who was the father of the Grand Duke. The Grand Duke left Peterhof last night.
